I see it Wherever I go!

Speaking of the American Newspaper Directory, Mr. S. C. Beckwith, the most successful of the New York special agents, says:

"I see it wherever I go.

"Prominent advertisers are constantly consulting it.

"When I approach an advertiser for a paper that I represent, the first thing he does is to spring Rowell on me.

"He hunts up the city and the paper; looks at the rating the Directory gives and then is ready to listen to me; but not till then.

"The new plan that permits placing an advertisement where an advertiser's eye may see it, at the very time when he is consulting the Directory for the purpose of deciding what papers to use in a specified State or city, pleases me.

"It has led me to urge all of my papers strongly to use advertising space in the Directory.

"An advertisement in such a position cannot be skipped.

"The advertiser sees the advertisement at just the moment when he is most interested in finding out about the particular paper.

"If the advertisement is truthful and its statements well expressed, it cannot fail to do good.

"A book rendering such a service to the better class of newspapers deserves to be patronized and protected, aided and encouraged."

Advertisement.—This paper for forty (40) years has been a favorite among the agricultural families of Susquehanna and adjoining counties. Devotes especial attention to local county news. Has a large circulation in families that take no other paper, and those that take the city dailies or semi-weeklies all want the REPUBLICAN to get the home news. The circulation is big among an intelligent, thrifty class of farmers; the advertiser cannot help but get the very best results. Home advertisers all use it, and all foreign first-class advertisers stay with us, in some instances our constant patrons for the last succeeding 20 years. Make money by placing an ad in this paper.

City of Philadelphia, ss.:

Personally appeared before me, the subscriber, John F. Pole, Magistrate of Court No. 10, of the said city, HARRINGTON FITZGERALD, who, being duly sworn, according to law, doth depose and say: That he is Manager of THE PHILADELPHIA ITEM; that to the best of his knowledge and belief the above table correctly shows the circulation of THE ITEM from January 1, 1894, to December 31, 1894, inclusive, and further deponent saith not.

HARRINGTON FITZGERALD.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 11th day of January, A. D., 1895.

[SEAL.] JOHN F. POLE, Magistrate of Court No. 10.

"There is no fool like — — ——— the man who thinks he knows all about printing inks."

"I pay 10 cents a pound for my news ink," said Col. Frank McLaughlin of the Philadelphia Times, "and I want to pay 10 cents a pound for it, because I want to use an ink that is worth 10 cents a pound."

The way Col. McLaughlin feels is the way that a a majority of publishers of first-rate dailies feel. They would be quite willing to pay 10 cents a pound, and they want an ink worth 10 cents a pound. The only trouble is that there isn't any news ink that is worth 10 cents a pound. I know another publisher who is buying the identical ink that Col. McLaughlin likes to pay 10 cents a pound for, but this other publisher don't feel that way, and he consequently buys it at 6 cents a pound. It is billed to him as "Times" ink, and it is constantly impressed upon him that he must never, never, never give the snap away. Nice way of doing business, isn't it? Such an ink as that Col. McLaughlin uses can be made for about two and a quarter cents a pound. I can't afford to sell it to him for that, but I can sell him for 4 cents a pound an ink that is a little better than he is using now, if he will order in 500-pound lots, and send a check with the order. He should remember my name and address. It is

PRINTERS INK JONSON,

8 Spruce Street, New York.

If Col. McLaughlin buys ink of me he ought to make his pressman a present of a new suit of clothes in the beginning. That will help the quality of my ink very much.

Lame and Decrepit

BUSINESS announcements in newspapers or other mediums should be "up-to-date," lively, full of snap and vim. Are your advertisements drawing a sufficiency of trade your way? Are they feeble, lame, lacking in strength? Perhaps they need bracing up—a tonic treatment, such as can only be obtained through the weekly visits of the famous Little Schoolmaster and Advertising Physician, PRINTERS' INK, published by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., 10 Spruce St., New York.

PRINTERS' INK is only $2 per year, and is full of valuable information for merchants, manufacturers and all advertisers. Send for a sample copy.

ANY publisher who placed on file at the Directory office a true statement conveying the requisite information concerning the issues of his paper, covering a full year, the same being duly signed and dated, and who finds now that the book has appeared his paper is not rated in accordance with the report which he sent, will receive from the publishers of the Directory a written apology for their neglect and a check for $25 for the discovery of the error. The publisher who registered the letter he sent containing the circulation statement, will find it easy to prove that one was sent and received. If he kept a copy it will be equally easy to establish the fact that the statement sent actually did contain the requisite information and was properly signed and dated.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

NOT BIASED.

The Radam Microbe Killer Co. has been advertising very extensively and with conderable success during the last few years, and this success is owing, to a large extent, to the experience which Mr. Hays, the present manager, employs in the selection of profitable mediums. In making up his list of papers to utilize, Mr. Hays is guided, to a considerable degree, by the circulation ratings in the American Newspaper Directory, and he is therefore competent to express an opinion as to their reliableness. Speaking of the Directory, Mr. Hays said:

"The publishers certainly endeavor to make the book as correct and as full of useful information to advertisers as care and the expenditure of money will allow. The issue for the present year is an extraordinarily valuable work. I cannot help thinki g that a large proportion of the directories are biased in the ratings they accord by business considerations, but I am satisfied that this is not the case with the American Newspaper Directory. In my opinion, the $100 reward offered for proof of the falsity of a guaranteed rating insures their truthfulness. When a paper's rating is not given in figures or marked with an asterisk, I am forced to regard any claims to a large circulation it may make with a good deal of suspicion. When a publisher sends me a statement concerning the circulation of his paper which does not agree with the rating accorded it in the Directory, I accept the latter, as I consider it more likely to be correct.

"I believe an advertiser ought to know the circulation of every paper which invites his business, and I therefore see no reason why publishers should refuse to furnish reasonable evidence of the extent to which their journals circulate."

In conclusion, Mr. Hays said: "I am convinced that an advertiser who is guided in his choice of mediums by the ratings accorded them in the Directory is not likely to be far astray."

The Great Wheat Belt.

The three States, North and South Dakota and Minnesota, have in the last three years produced nearly 400,000,000 bushels of wheat —an amount nearly equal to the annual production of the entire United States. This is the richest agricultural region on earth.

The Dakota Ruralist.

The Dakota Ruralist.

Covers both Dakotas and Western Minnesota very thoroughly, with a weekly circulation of 15,000. Our paper is small—weighing 24 copies to the pound—yet our January postage was nearly $30.00, or about forty times the average of South Dakota local weeklies. Full information and proof of circulation will be furnished on request.

The Dakota Ruralist.

The Star.

We also publish THE STAR as a local edition. This covers the local field well. It is a weekly, with an actual average each issue in 1894 exceeding 4,000. Advertisers in THE DAKOTA RURALIST will not need THE STAR.

No Inks Ever Made Go Farther Than Mine and the scrapings of the bottom of the barrel make a better ink than some sold by my competitors at twice my prices.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., March 21, 1895.

Printers' Ink Jonson:

The Woman's Edition of the Tribune was printed from half-tones to solid black cuts, with the famous Jonson 4-cent ink. Although we printed ten thousand 36-page papers, not over four inches out of the upper half of our 500-pound barrel disappeared.

Jonson ink is good enough; it lasts well.

Yours truly,
JNO. S. VANWINKLE, Manager.
The Knoxville Tribune, Daily, Sunday, Weekly.

STEUBENVILLE, O., March 21, 1895.

Printers' Ink Jonson:

An ink man told me I would never buy any more of your news ink after I got to the bottom of the present barrel; he said I would be compelled to throw one-third of the ink away; but we are now at the bottom of the barrel; the evidence of what we found there is best told by our check inclosed for another barrel. Send at once a barrel of heavy ink for summer use.

Yours truly,
W. W. MACKAY, Proprietor.
The Evening and Weekly Star.

The ink salesmen who lie about my inks are rapidly coming to this condition.

The NEWS INK I sell actually costs more to make than any other News Ink made in America. The only reasons why I can sell cheaper than others do are to be found in these four solid facts: (1.) I make no bad debts. (2.) I fee no pressmen. (3.) I employ no salesmen. (4.) I keep no bookkeeper.

I get the money in hand first; then you get the INK—p.d.q., and if when you get it you assert that it is not O. K., you ship it right back, at my expense, and I return your cash q.d.p.

When you buy of me you pay for INK—and nothing else; but you still pay a fair profit on the cost of producing the best ink it is possible to make.

When other dealers adopt my methods of business they will all undersell me; for they can all produce the inks THEY sell at less cost than I can produce the inks I sell.

I recommend all persons to inclose six cents in stamps for my beautiful price list, printed in five colors, with a living picture on the outside cover. Address,

PRINTERS' INK JONSON,
8 Spruce Street, New York City.

Printers everywhere are beginning to assert that my News Inks are better (very much better) than any others. The strangest thing remains to be told, for no other Job Inks approach mine in quality, even when sold at sixteen times my prices.

You Want

present circulation and not that of a year ago. This is what we are prepared to give you in the Daily, Sunday and Weekly

Memphis Commercial Appeal

Eleven lines of railroads carry the Daily and Sunday editions in all directions. These two editions alone thoroughly cover the 800 miles of fertile territory between St. Louis and New Orleans. The Weekly goes everywhere over the South.

Results are what you want and you get them when you place your advertisement in the COMMERCIAL APPEAL.

Known Circulation:

Daily, - - - 18,000
Sunday, - - - 20,000
Weekly, - - 50,000

See publishers' announcement on opposite page.
Advertisement.—The above rating is given on a sworn statement of circulation for a full year, furnished by the COMMERCIAL APPEAL. The COMMERCIAL APPEAL is a consolidation of The Commercial and The Appeal-Avalanche, which was made in July last, and as this statement included a period previous to the consolidation, when only The Commercial's circulation was counted, the year's average does not do full justice to the consolidated COMMERCIAL APPEAL. Advertisers, however, can get the circulation of both papers in one the coming year, For the first time in fifty years Memphis has but one morning paper—the COMMERCIAL APPEAL—in fact the only metropolitan daily and Sunday paper between St. Louis and New Orleans, a distance of 800 miles, and is equidistant from either city. Eleven (11) lines of railroads carry the daily COMMERCIAL APPEAL all over this territory and the weekly goes all over the South. Known Circulation exceeding 18,000 daily, 20,000 Sunday, 50,000 weekly. A. Frank Richardson, Tribune Building, New York; Chamber of Commerce, Chicago.

Without exception this paper, both Daily and Weekly, has the largest circulation rating accorded to any paper in Tennessee, Arkansas or Mississippi, or within a radius of 300 miles of Memphis, and the accuracy of its circulation rating is guaranteed by the publishers of this Directory, who will pay one hundred dollars to the first person who proves that its issues were not as stated.

Ratings Are High Enough.

An advertiser whose long experience in the advertising field qualifies him to speak as an authority, and makes his views of importance, is Mr. J. F. Place, the advertising manager of the Rochester Lamp Co., of New York City:

"In the twenty-five years I have been connected with the advertising business," said Mr. Place, "I have always held that an advertiser is perfectly right in demanding an accurate statement of the circulation of any paper he is asked to patronize. I should regard an advertiser as a very poor business man if he failed to insist upon the most convincing evidence of the correctness of the circulation claimed by any paper he purchases space in. I am persuaded that the circulation ratings accorded in the American Newspaper Directory are not influenced by any business or personal motive.

"I judge that they follow the same rule in the strict impartiality and truthfulness of their circulation ratings that the managers of a commercial agency do in their credit ratings.

"In choosing between the statement of a publisher and the rating accorded him in the American Newspaper Directory, I naturally accept the latter. I would give the circulation statement of the average publisher the same credence that I attach to the statement of the average merchant, when seeking credit, in respect to his capital, business and standing. In giving a merchant credit, any firm to whom he is unknown would ask for reference, and consult Dun or Bradstreet as to his rating. It is exactly the same in the case of a newspaper publisher who solicits advertising. When his statement is received, the shrewd and experienced advertiser immediately consults the American Newspaper Directory in order to ascertain the rating accorded the circulation of his paper therein.

"I believe an advertising expenditure founded on the circulation reports in the Directory would be far more satisfactory in its results than if the publisher's statements only were considered, on the same principle that a mercantile business is more likely to be successful if Dun or Bradstreet's reports are accepted rather than the bare statements furnished by customers.

"I am convinced that the hundred dollars offered by the publishers of the Directory for proof of false reports insures their accuracy. It doubtless has a tendency to cause newspaper proprietors and managers to exercise caution in making their returns, and I judge from the small proportion who avail themselves of this privilege, thereby receiving a guaranteed rating, that they are fairly well satisfied with the estimates made of their papers' circulation. It seems to me that if they were under-rated they would certainly take the necessary trouble to make a true statement, and thus obtain proper rating. As I understand it, all the American Newspaper Directory publishers require is a simple statement of the number of each issue for a year. In justice to the advertisers who purchase the Directory, they could hardly demand less. It would be a reflection on the intelligence of any publisher to suppose he is ignorant of the number of copies of his paper printed. The natural presumption then is that, without a circulation statement from him, the rating accorded by the Directory is satisfactory, and that his paper receives credit for all the circulation it possesses."

POKE OUT YOUR HEAD

Space in the newspapers and magazines costs lots of money. It costs just as much whether the ad is well displayed or poorly displayed. It's the worst kind of economy to send in copy and take chances that the printer will make a good ad of it. The right way is to send your copy to me and have your ads set up and electrotyped.

I can make an ad poke its head right out of the midst of the other advertisements around it. No difference what you sell or where you advertise, the wisest way is to mail your copy to me to be set up artistically and conspicuously, and send 2-cent stamp for my booklet.

LARGE TERRITORY AND LARGE CIRCULATION.

The American Newspaper Directory.

A PENNSYLVANIA OPINION:

The following extract from the leading editorial in the Chester, Pa., Times, of Thursday, September 27th, 1894, is of general interest at this time:

Years ago newspapers did not state their circulation, and the usefulness of the various journals to their patrons was clouded in mystery. Of late years, however, there has been a tendency toward frankness and honesty in the matter of newspaper circulation, although many publishers, especially those whose papers compare unfavorably with their rivals' in point of circulation, still refuse to make any definite statement regarding their editions, or else make indefinite statements so untrustworthy as to be of no value to the seeker after information. No influence has done more for the correction of this evil of misrepresentation than the American Newspaper Directory, published by George P. Rowell & Co., of New York. It seems to have been the particular mission of this publication and its able ally, PRINTERS' INK, to secure for advertisers some definite information as to the circulation of the newspapers of the country. The American Newspaper Directory makes every effort to secure correct, tabulated figures of circulation for every day of the year, and has met with great success in so doing. The Publishers of the Directory place so much confidence in the ratings given papers where the publishers make detailed statements, that they guarantee the correctness of them and pay a forfeit of $100 to any person who proves such a statement to be untrue. Despite this inducement to accuracy, there are many papers which will not furnish statements of their editions. The American Newspaper Directory has rendered a great service to advertisers in general and to honest newspaper publishers in its efforts to secure actual circulation statements, and the fact that it has to a great extent righted the evil, and placed honest newspapers in the position to which they are entitled, is the best argument as to the desirability of the publication of a directory. No newspaper publisher who desires to be perfectly honest with his patrons has any grievance against the Directory, and it is only those who are too careless to furnish a statement or are afraid to let their circulation figures see the light of day, who complain of the directory's efforts to secure reliable ratings. The American Newspaper Directory is one of the most useful business publications extant.

Its circulation is larger than that of any other religious paper in South or Southwest.

...TEXAS... CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

47 YEARS OLD.

The official organ of the five M. E. Conferences of Texas and New Mexico.

Advertising Rates Upon Application.

L. BLAYLOCK, PUBLISHER, - - DALLAS, TEXAS.

I Solicit Printing

FROM THOSE WHO WANT GOOD WORK.

AS a general thing, the fair way to do is to patronize home workmen, but in the matter of advertising it is different. Your local printer may be ever so good a workman, but he has not the assortment of material that I have—the type, the borders, the ornaments.

He cannot afford to buy them, because there is not enough high-class work in his city to justify the expense.

Many of the great advertisers of the United States bring their work to me. The leading ad writers of America come to my office when they have important jobs on hand. To hold this I am compelled to buy everything new in type faces and borders. I print every thing in first-class style.

WM. JOHNSTON, Mgr. Printers' Ink Press, 10 Spruce Street, NEW YORK.

Circulation equal to that of any Agricultural Weekly in the South.

Is it Worth 4cts.?

IS it worth four cents a week to learn in a delightful and chatty way, at your own convenience, from a source of information engaged for thirty years in its acquisition, how to advertise your business so as to increase it beyond any measure which you have contemplated?

That's what PRINTERS' INK does. You send $2 00 to George P. Rowell & Co. In return you get the magazine for a year. There's two dollars' worth of assistance in every number, no matter how well up in the art of advertising you are. A consensus of opinion is better than one mind. You get the best from all sources; and the chiefest among the ten thousand are the publishers themselves.

Frank E. Moynahan, Danvers, Mass.

FARMER AND FISHERMAN;

Blue-Black Inks.

(Rabbit's Foot Brand.)

MR. JOSEPH C. DUPORT.

WESTFIELD, MASS., April 22, 1895.

Printers' Ink Jonson, New York.

DEAR SIR—I have been buying a blue-black cut ink of you for use on "The North Star." It works to perfection on the stock used, 50-pound S. S. & C. book paper, and at 50c. per pound, in 10-pound lots, is certainly a bonanza. I send you by this mail a copy of "The North Star," wherein the ink is used, and showing the use of your carmine in the advertisement.

Your prompt shipment of my orders is nearly equal to the promptness you require in the payment for your goods.

Respectfully,

JOSEPH C. DUPORT,
Publisher.

Mr. Jos. C. Duport, whose portrait appears above, is the first one to respond to my appeal, which appeared in PRINTERS' INK for April 17th, urging users of my inks to send me their portraits for publication, together with an honest expression of opinion concerning the quality and value of my inks. The April issue of Mr. Duport's paper is a very fine specimen of presswork, and it also shows the quality of my inks.

I recommend every printer interested in a fine Blue-Black to send ten cents in stamps to the "North Star," of Westfield, Mass., and obtain a copy of the paper. He can then judge for himself.

I Have Two Grades of Blue-Black.

My regular Blue-Black I sell at a dollar a pound or ten pounds for five dollars. This is the sort that Mr. Duport had. I have a cheaper Blue-Black that I sell in three-pound cans for a dollar a can. It is a deeper—blacker—Blue-Black.

I will match any Blue-Black in the world for a dollar a pound.

SEND FOR MY BEAUTIFUL PRICE LIST.

Browns.

THE LOTUS PRESS, NATHAN BROS., 140 W. 23D STREET, NEW YORK.
Experts in Typography. Telephone 1131–18th st.
NOVEMBER 8, 1894.

MR. JONSON, 8 SPRUCE ST., N. Y. CITY.

Dear Sir—We are getting our inks from you and have given you some severe tests. We did not think it possible that there could be such a vast difference in the prices of the same grades of ink, and if you had not made your statements so emphatic in your PRINTERS' INK ads, we might still be paying three prices for the identical goods we are now buying from you. On our work we require printing inks of the very finest quality, regardless of price, consequently our first order was given with considerable doubt. We understood your agreement to refund the money if not satisfied, but we did not want the annoyance of an unsatisfactory experiment, entailing waste of time, ruffled temper, and loss of confidence in human nature. However, we made the experiment, and the result is you are now supplying us with all the inks we use. We formerly had a great deal of trouble with some brown inks, and are happy to say, that while all the inks we have bought of you are entirely satisfactory, the brown is superior to any we have ever used at any price. We have always contended that "the best is good enough," and we are satisfied that yours is the best.

Yours very truly, THE LOTUS PRESS, per P. N.

Charles Austin Bates, the ad-smith, in commenting upon his facilities for compiling, writing, arranging, illustrating and printing catalogues and booklets, said of the Lotus Press:

"THERE ARE NO BETTER PRINTERS THAN THESE."

Mr. Fred. C. Ringer, Secretary of the Geo. P. Rowell Advertising Company, whose reputation as a connoisseur of art printing stands very high, was recently heard to assert, after looking over a handful of specimens, productions of the Lotus Press, that he had rarely seen a collection that would compare with them in beauty of design and perfection of workmanship.

They are using my job inks exclusively on their work, and in giving out work to other printers they request them to use none but mine.

Your Brown was in every way satisfactory.—Charles W. Eddy, Ware, Mass.

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer.....

Every intelligent advertiser knows that, in placing new articles on the market and in keeping old ones before the public, the great newspapers of the country are the most effective mediums. This is because they have a large and prosperous constituency, with ample means to supply their wants. The great newspaper of the State of Washington is the SEATTLE POST-INTELLIGENCER. It has no rival, no peer, and stands absolutely at the head of the newspaper procession in the great Puget Sound Region.

ADVERTISING RATES ON APPLICATION.

THE $100 REWARD.

WHEN any one questions the accuracy of a guaranteed circulation rating in the American Newspaper Directory, and makes an attempt to collect the $100 reward offered in a case where the Directory has been imposed upon by an untruthful report, it becomes requisite, in order to obtain the reward, to furnish such proof as would be considered satisfactory by a Grand Jury or in a court of law when no defense is set up. Persons intending to enter a claim for the reward will do well to take the advice of a local attorney or a business man having experience in such matters. The publishers of the Directory pay the reward cheerfully when a case is made out, but it is not a part of their duty to aid in proving a publisher in the wrong, who, so far as they know, and would be glad to believe, may be absolutely right.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

OF COURSE YOU
ADVERTISE,
And often feel the need of something which you can turn to in confidence, and find the pointers necessary to construct attractive, modern advertisements.

PRINTERS' INK, a neat pocket-size weekly published at No. 10 Spruce Street, New York, is designed expressly for this purpose, and if you consult its pages you will readily acquire the habit of writing ads that not only catch the public eye, but sell goods.

Two dollars pays for a year's subscription, and a postal will bring you a sample copy. Try it.

Geo. H. Hartwell, Houston, Texas.

DON'T ADVERTISE
and squander your money, if you don't know how to do it right. Learn from the practical experience of successful advertisers and recognized experts.

How? Why, they tell you all about it in
PRINTERS' INK,
published by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., 10 Spruce St., New York.

Write for a sample copy, and see whether it wouldn't pay you to subscribe for 52 weeks for $2.00.

Ludwig Bohn, 351 East 52nd St., New York.

HELP YOUR BUSINESS
by advertising it in the right way, in the right place, and at the right time.
PRINTERS' INK
will tell you how to advertise it, where to advertise it, and when to advertise it, to make it pay.

Write for a sample copy to Geo. P. Rowell & Co., 10 Spruce St., New York.

You are sure to send in your $2.00 to get PRINTERS' INK every week for one year.

Ludwig Bohn, 351 East 52nd St., New York City.

A merchant stepped into the office of a weekly paper the other day, and, handing the manager an ad containing a jumbled-up list of the many articles he has for sale (without any prices quoted), said: "There, that will do for my ad for a year."

The merchant is, perhaps, an exception to the usual run of injudicious advertisers, in that he is fairly successful (though only fairly so), but his store is an old-established place, and people who know him will trade with him because they have been accustomed to do so; but that ad will get him no new trade, and will not be worth printing the third successive time.

This merchant was about as bad as another who told me he did not want to advertise because he feared he would be compelled to hire more clerks. It is needless to say that neither merchant is a reader of PRINTERS' INK. If they were, and considered themselves incapable of writing good ads, they would hire some one to construct bright, crisp ads once in two weeks, at least, and to see that the ads were judiciously placed, and take full charge of their advertising until such time as these men had gone through a course of training under private tuition of The Little Schoolmaster, at $2.00 a year tuition fee. This able tutor would soon convince them that there is a vast difference between a good salesman and a judicious advertiser. That man who has a right to boast of his ability to make a sale may not understand how to word ads so as to draw customers to whom to sell goods. In a nutshell, that is what PRINTERS' INK is for: not to teach merchants how to sell goods, but how to secure customers who are in need of their wares. Let them know YOU sell such-and-such goods at such-and-such prices, and the selling will be easy enough.

C. W. Darling, Canandaigua, N. Y.

HELPFUL
ADVERTISING
HINTS.
Good advertising means business—business means money.
PRINTERS' INK
is a journal for advertisers. Tells you when, where and how to advertise. Its pages are filled with the experiences of successful advertisers, and contributions by the best advertising specialists in the country.

A sample copy costs nothing; a year's subscription—52 numbers—$2.00. Get a sample copy anyway.

PRINTERS' INK,

4 CENTS
A POUND
is cheap for printers' ink, and some manufacturers sell it at that price.

But even at four cents a pound it would not be cheap to an advertiser who did not know how to use it judiciously.

Thousands of dollars are wasted every year by shiftless advertising.

PRINTERS' INK,
52 TIMES FOR $2.00,
will teach you how to use 4-cent ink, or any other ink, in a way that will bring results. You need it.

Sample copy free on application.

BUSINESS MEN'S BOTHER
Has heretofore been to grasp the true theory of advertising and put it into practice.

To be successful in business, you must be successfully advertised. To be a successful advertiser you must keep posted; and to keep posted you must diligently read a spic-span little Weekly Magazine, devoted to this important part of your business.
PRINTERS' INK,

Drop a line to 10 Spruce St., New York, and get a sample copy.

Jno. W. Gunn, Snohomish, Wash.

DO YOU
ADVERTISE?
There is but one answer to this question; but were it varied to—"How is it best to advertise?" the answers would be innumerable.

There is a paper in New York published in the interest of every one who advertises.

The man who can read
PRINTERS'
INK
("The Little Schoolmaster of Advertising," as it has been called by enthusiastic subscribers), and not learn something that will save him the cost of subscription ($2),

DOESN'T NEED TO ADVERTISE
AT ALL.

Advertisement.—The STATE JOURNAL has the honor accorded it by persons of all political faiths of being the leading paper in the State. This is possibly owing to the excellent business methods and the live local and editorial features of the paper. The daily goes into four-sevenths of the homes in the city. The weekly is a large eight-page paper, cut and pasted, and has a circulation phenomenal for a paper published in a town of this size. We recognize no competitors in this city; we act whilst the other fellow is thinking about it. We don't quote or make affidavit to our circulation; the truthteller possibly would object to giving figures for fear the circulation may be cut in half, but nevertheless, the circulation is second to no other paper in the State. Parkersburg is the second city in the State.

Book Inks.

"We have been using your 20-cent book ink on publications which we previously used 35-cent ink." MACCALLA & CO. Philadelphia, Pa.

"Your 20-cent ink is the most satisfactory book ink we have used in a long time, and takes the place of ink for which we have been paying 50 and 60 cents."
OHIO POULTRY JOURNAL, Dayton, Ohio.

"The book ink sent us is, as the college boys say, 'Pretty hot Stuff.' Send us 40 lbs. more." INDEPENDENT, Edinboro, Pa.

"We printed an edition of 5,000 copies of a small pamphlet, and used less than ¾ of a pound of your fine cut ink. In all the writer's experience he has never seen an ink that would give such blacks as are fairly shown in the sample sent, the qualities of the paper varying so materially. We assure you of the continued patronage of this country print shop."
WHITE-WAGONER CO., East Aurora, N. Y.

OUR BUSINESS IS TO MIND YOUR BUSINESS.

That is, each week we furnish you with the best suggestions and most valuable experiences of those who have graduated in the schools of advertising and have made a success of this science.

PRINTERS' INK makes it its business to show you how to improve the advertising feature of your business. It is full of clever ideas by clever advertisers. Why not know what these people are doing? It will cost you only two dollars a year. Sample copies free. Published at 10 Spruce St., New York.

Albert Ulmann, 175 Broadway, N. Y. City.

IT'S TIME TO CHANGE

That standing ad of yours. In fact it would be more effective if changed every week. If you don't know how, there is a Little Schoolmaster in the art of advertising who will teach you. You're a master of every other branch of your business. Why not of this one?

The Pedagogue of Advertising referred to above is published at 10 Spruce Street, New York. Tuition, $2 per year.

PRINTERS' INK,

The masters of the art of advertising contribute the wisdom of the craft to its pages and draw inspiration from its inexhaustible store of suggestions and ideas.

Chester J. Brown, Bartlett, Neb.

BUSINESS MEN WHO WISH
TO SELL MORE GOODS
THIS YEAR

Should do better advertising than ever before, for it's advertising that sells goods.

A year's subscription to PRINTERS' INK, the little magazine devoted to that one subject, "How best to advertise your goods," will help you wonderfully in accomplishing this result.

The best thing about PRINTERS' INK is that it is thoroughly practical. Sample free. Comes weekly—$2 a year. PRINTERS' INK, 10 Spruce St., New York.

W. Moseley, Elgin, Ill.

ADVERTISE?

If you do, you'll want to do it to the best advantage. If you don't, it is probably because you have failed to make it pay, from lack of skill.

In either case you should subscribe for PRINTERS' INK, a journal for advertisers. Through its pages the best and most successful advertisers tell how they make advertising pay—and pay well.

Two dollars a year. Send to 10 Spruce Street, New York, for a sample copy.

C. H. Hale, Orellia, Ontario, Canada.

AFFORD NOT TO BE WISE,

if you can gain the wisdom for $2 per year, and get it in 52 weekly installments, to apply it to your business, as it needs it?

Your absorbing thought is: "How to succeed." PRINTERS' INK will show you the road by teaching you JUDICIOUS ADVERTISING.

It will also show you how others succeeded by these very means, and it will show you samples of Advertising Experts' work that has been a mine of wealth to thousands of business men. Address 10 Spruce Street, New York.

Theo. Kaysen, Kansas City, Mo.

A NEW SCIENCE.

Advertising, at one time largely a matter of luck, has developed into an exact science. Like other sciences, rapid advancement is being made in it in this age of progress. If you would make a success of your advertising you must first study the rules, the same as in any other science. And what better teacher could you get than "The Little Schoolmaster" which was principally instrumental in the development of advertising as a science, and still leads the van?

In the breezy pages of PRINTERS' INK the most successful advertisers and the greatest advertising specialists tell, week by week, their experience and discoveries.

To the business man who advertises, or who ought to advertise, PRINTERS' INK is invaluable; $2 will bring it to your address for a year. Or a post-card sent to 10 Spruce Street, New York, will fetch a sample copy.

C. H. Hale, Orellia, Ont., Canada.

A RICH PAYING GOLD MINE

for advertisers to dig in is PRINTERS' INK, the best, the standard authority on Judicious Advertising. You can become a stockholder for $2 per year, which entitles you to 52 weekly diggings. Its columns are covered with pay-streaks of rich matter from the publisher's thirty years' experience with successful advertisers' methods of applying it and with the pure stuff, evolving from the Ad-Experts' Brains, which turns into gold, if applied to your business.

For sample copy, address 10 Spruce Street, New York.

Theo. Kaysen, Kansas City, Mo.

WE
MILLIONS

for the advertisers of this country by giving them PRINTERS' INK, the standard authority on "Judicious Advertising."

It will make YOU rich if you make use of its sound teachings, if you follow the examples of the successful advertisers whose work and methods it tells you of, and if you copy the brilliant Ad-Experts, samples of whose work are displayed in each copy.

Dear Sir

Upon ask us for our honest unbiased opinion of the Herald as an advertising medium we have simply to say that the thousands of people who called at the Herald office for a free sample of "Mumfords Rheumatic Cure" the day following the single announcement in your paper speaks louder than words what one advertisement in the Herald will accomplish. We shall use your paper permanently in the future. We Congratulate the Herald on its magnificent Circulation

Cordially Yours

Advertisement.—The WISCONSIN AGRICULTURIST is the only English agricultural paper published in Wisconsin. Its regular issues are larger than those of any English paper in the State. Its advertising rates are lower in proportion to proved circulation than those of any similar paper in this country. Any responsible advertising agency will confirm all of these statements.

This paper is credited with a higher circulation than any English semi-monthly, weekly or daily English publication issued in Wisconsin. The accuracy of its circulation rating is guaranteed by the publishers of this Directory, who will pay a reward of $100 to the first person that proves that its issues were not as stated.

In all America there are only eight semi-monthly papers which have so high a circulation rating as credited to this paper. The accuracy of its circulation rating is guaranteed by the publishers of this Directory by the forfeit of $100.00, payable to the first person that proves that its issues were not as stated.

CANADA.

Printers in Canada do not care to buy printing ink outside of the Dominion, because the duty and freight rates make such an important item. This is not so when they buy from me. My prices, with duty and freight added, are still much lower than those of home manufacturers, and the goods I sell are of better quality. THIS IS ALL POSSIBLE, SIMPLY BECAUSE I GET CASH WITH THE ORDER and make no losses. The freight from New York to Toronto or Montreal is only 45 cents for 100 pounds, and the duty is only 20 per cent ad valorem. A 500-pound barrel of my news ink, therefore, delivered in Toronto or Montreal, will cost only $26.55, or 5 3-10 cents a pound. I am selling inks to over a thousand different offices in the United States, but to only twelve in Canada. Every customer this side of the line appears to be so well satisfied that it makes me anxious to secure more customers from nearer the Arctic Circle.

Since I commenced business I have sold over two hundred tons of NEWS INK, and everybody with whom I have dealt is satisfied. I am making a marked impression on the ink trade. I sell

500-pound Barrel at 4c.	$20 00
250-pound Barrel at 4½c.	11 25
100-pound Keg at 5c.	5 00
50-pound Keg at 5½c.	2 75
25-pound Keg at 6c.	1 50

My ink is just as good NEWS INK as can be bought anywhere at 25 cents a pound. It is not a matter of price.

My ink is the best in the world for newspaper work.

To make it certain that I can suit, all that I need is to see a copy of the paper to be printed, to know the kind of press used and the temperature of the press-room; and, most important of all, a check with the order. Address, Printers Ink Jonson, No. 8 Spruce Street, New York.

WANAMAKER PAYS HIM
TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS, COSTS YOU $2.

Wanamaker's big Philadelphia store is the greatest store of its kind in America—made so by advertising.

He pays a man $10,000 yearly, who does nothing but write advertisements. Every merchant can't afford it, don't need it if they could.

PRINTERS' INK

is filling the same mission, weekly, of the $10,000 advertisement writer at only $2 a year.

We tell you how to write your ads, what to say, how the printer should display it. Sample ads and ideas from best advertisers in America. If you haven't time to devote to such work, PRINTERS' INK will supply you with a fresh ad every week that will sell goods. Every class of business treated. Get a sample copy of

PRINTERS' INKERIZE
YOUR BUSINESS.

Thousands of country merchants advertise freely in their local paper without results. Thousands of others would like to, don't know how, and don't.

Knowing ones, however, are grasping on and using the weekly advertising ideas of PRINTERS' INK.

It only costs $2 a year, comes every week, and instead of you racking your overtaxed brain, it tells you just how to word your ad and how the printer should set it to good effect.

No difference what your business is, it treats of all. If you would make your advertising interesting and a profit to you PRINTERS' INKERIZE it. Four cents a week. There are other good ideas in it, too.

ARE YOU IN A RUT? *

Do you know why other people are doing more business than you? Do you know why your neighbors and competitors are getting out more attractive and business making advertisements? Do you know why they are putting so much vim and snap and enterprise into their business, while you have nothing to do but sweep cobwebs off your stock?

It's an open secret. They subscribe for PRINTERS' INK, which every week brings them fresh ideas and keeps them informed of all the latest thoughts and successes of the brightest advertising minds in the world. Published by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., at 10 Spruce St., N. Y., at $2 a year. Get into line.

52 CONSULTATIONS FOR $2.

When you are in legal trouble you go to a lawyer for advice. He charges you from $5 up, according to his reputation, for advice.

If you are ill you go to a physician and pay him big money for his advice and services.

When not able yourself to overcome anything you go to somebody who has had study, practice and experience in that particular department. It is not in your line. It is somebody else's specialty.

Then why don't you make the best investment of your life by sending $2 to G. P. Rowell & Co., advertising specialists, 10 Spruce Street, N. Y., and in a year's subscription to PRINTERS' INK get 52 ample measures of instruction and advice that will many times manifold your business?

THE $100 REWARD.

When any one questions the accuracy of a guaranteed circulation rating in the American Newspaper Directory, and makes an attempt to collect the $100 reward offered in a case where the Directory has been imposed upon by an untruthful report, it becomes requisite, in order to obtain the reward, to furnish such proof as would be considered satisfactory by a Grand Jury or in a court of law when no defense is set up Persons intending to enter a claim for the reward will do well to take the advice of a local attorney or a business man having experience in such matters. The publishers of the Directory pay the reward cheerfully when a case is made out, but it is not a part of their duty to aid in proving a publisher in the wrong, who, so far as they know, and would be glad to believe, may be absolutely right.

Good Printing

I PRINT EVERYTHING. My specialties are circulars, street car cards, booklets, catalogues; but my particular specialty is setting up ads and furnishing electrotypes. In this thing of setting ads I honestly believe I can beat any other man in any other printing office. Probably no other printer in this whole country has such a thorough assortmont of type and borders as I have. I can make an ad stand right out boldly and brightly among its competitors. I can often make a quarter-page magazine ad show up better than ads occupying twice that space. I know when to use or not use borders. I know when black type is needed to impress an idea emphatically, and I know when light-faced type ought to be used.

Times..

Port Hope, Ont.

Established, Daily, 1881. Weekly, 1861.

W. F. TRAYES,
Editor and Proprietor.

All subscriptions for the paper are payable strictly in advance, and as a consequence THE TIMES has a better circulation than any other paper between Montreal and Toronto. . . . . .

Port Hope is well situated for a commercial center, and has a population of 6,000. It enjoys the best shipping and railroad facilities, and the rapid increase in population warrants the expectation of its becoming an important manufacturing center. . . . . .

No better medium can be had than THE TIMES for reaching the active, thrifty and progressive people of Port Hope and surrounding territory. . . . . .

Sample Copy and Rates will be sent on application...

$25 REWARD.

Any publisher who placed on file at the Directory office a true statement, conveying the requisite information concerning the issues of his paper, covering a full year, the same being duly signed and dated, and who finds now that the book has appeared his paper is not rated in accordance with the report which he sent, will receive from the publishers of the Directory a written apology for their neglect and a check for $25 for the discovery of the error. The publisher who registered the letter he sent containing the circulation statement, will find it easy to prove that one was sent and received. If he kept a copy it will be equally easy to establish the fact that the statement sent actually did contain the requisite information and was properly signed and dated.

COMMON
BUSINESS.

The evidence of stern facts is conclusive. Experience has established the fact that advertising pays. It's not a theory—it's an actuality. It follows, the better your advertising, the better it pays.

If you would have it pay better, you cannot afford to be without that authority in the advertising world—PRINTERS' INK.

Many a successful business man of to-day owes a share of his prosperity to it. Every issue contains valuable advertising pointers—pointers that bring business.

Subscription price $2 a year.

Printers' Ink Cut.

This ink is used exclusively on PRINTERS' INK each week, and is known by this name all over the country. It is a finer grade than my regular book ink, and can be used for half-tone work on super-sized and calendered paper. It is a clean-working ink, and there is no loss of time by continually washing the forms. It works as well at the end of a large run as it does at the beginning. Printers appreciate what a saving this means! Read the following testimonials:

Your Printers' Ink Cut is the most satisfactory ink we have used in a long time, and we paid 50 to 60 cents for ink not as good.

OHIO POULTRY JOURNAL, Dayton, Ohio.

We are preparing to stock our office throughout with your job, book and news inks, which heretofore we have been buying of Western houses at war prices. The inks we have tried from you are eminently satisfactory—better than we have ever seen from other houses at any price. Success to you and your crusade. Send along ten pounds of your Printers' Ink Cut.

PARLETTE & M'COPPIN, Ada, Ohio.

Your Printers' Ink Cut has been used entirely on my seed catalogue.

THE LOVETT CO., Little Silver, N. J.

Send me twenty pounds of your Printers' Ink Cut at 25 cents. We like this ink very much and think it is as good as that for which we have paid 50 cents a pound.

THE EGG REPORTER, Waterloo, Iowa.

The price of this ink is twenty-five cents a pound, whether you buy one or one hundred pounds. I put it up in any size cans the customer desires.

For the past eight years the AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY has been printed each year with this ink.

Examine this copy carefully and judge the quality of the ink. Send for my beautiful price list. Address

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

* A POINTER.

Very few business men can write an advertisement that is satisfactory. Those who can do so have made a study of it.

ADVERTISING IS A SCIENCE.

A journal devoted to this subject, and from which you can learn how to write an ad, is called PRINTERS' INK. It is published every week at 10 Spruce St., New York.

Send for a sample copy; it will cost you nothing.

Alfred Rindge, Zeeland, Mich.

ADVERTISING.

Such an institution is among the possibilities and it would cause no surprise even now among America's successful business men who have learned the true value of publicity.

ADVERTISING IS NO LONGER A LUXURY BUT A DECIDED NECESSITY.

To advertise is one thing. To advertise properly is quite another. It is easy to spend money foolishly in advertising.

To know how to make it a paying investment you should get

PRINTERS' INK, a journal for advertisers.

It tells all the Whys and Wherefores. It is full of good suggestions—published weekly at 10 Spruce St., New York, at $2 a year.

You can get a sample copy by sending your address.

Chas. M. Wiener, South Whitley, Ind.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO LEARN HOW TO ADVERTISE SUCCESSFULLY?

There are more wrong than right ways to advertise. It is easy to follow the wrong path, but it leads to error.

There is absolutely no means of moving goods quicker than by the leverage of a powerful ad.

GOOD ADVERTISING CREATES A DEMAND AND EFFECTS SALES.

There is plenty of argument for good advertising, and the best way to learn how to advertise the right way is to get a journal published for live, wide-awake advertisers at 10 Spruce St., New York.

PRINTERS' INK,

It saves the advertiser many anxious hours and teaches him how to avoid the pitfalls. Send your request for free sample.

Chas. M. Wiener, South Whitley, Ind.

BUSINESS MEN,
Take me. Examine me.
Study me and become wise.
YOU WILL FIND ME
The best friend you ever had,
The best finger-board to success,
Full of pointers that tell;
Brimful of successful experiences.

If you would gain wealth and honor, follow my pointers. Two dollars per year—a mere speck compared with value received.

PRINTERS' INK, a weekly magazine for advertisers, is invaluable.

CONSTANT HUSTLING BRINGS SUCCESS,

But constant reading of PRINTERS' INK brings knowledge to the advertiser of anything that is duplicated in no magazine published.

PRINTERS' INK is a journal for advertisers, issued once a week at 10 Spruce St., New York City, containing the ideas and advertising schemes of the best specialists and largest advertisers in America.

Besides, a thoroughly interesting page of editorials—the outcome of twenty years' experience.

A BLIND
MAN

will grasp at almost anything he can lay his hands on if he thinks it will help him any in regaining his sight.

It is the same way with the business man; he wishes to do more business, and the first thing he thinks of is to advertise; and without giving it much thought he advertises in a blind way.

Now, why not read the magazine published by men who have been in the advertising business for years?

Just such men of experience publish PRINTERS' INK, which is a weekly magazine devoted entirely to the art of advertising, and each week it has a number of sample display ads which would do any business man good to read. It is printed on good paper, with good ink, and we often hear the remark from some subscriber that he "would not be without it."

We know that if you once subscribe for it you will always continue. This is the reason we want you to write for a sample copy, which costs you nothing, and a year's subscription only costs $2.00.

A LITTLE KNOWLEDGE

concerning the methods you should use in advertising would bring you more money in one month than the subscription price to the best magazine published would cost.

PRINTERS' INK costs but $2.00 a year, and presents every week the ideas and knowledge of the best ad-smiths in the country.

Send for sample copy to No. 10 Spruce St., New York City.

Edwin Reese, Staunton, Va.

A RARA AVIS — IS THE SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS MAN WHO DOES NOT ADVERTISE. *

Even the most reluctant are compelled to acknowledge that advertising is now a necessity. Yet many neglect it because they cannot afford to hire an expert and have not the time or experience to prepare their own ads.

Just here is the province of PRINTERS' INK, sold at a price so low as to be entirely inconsistent with its value. It has no husk; it is all kernel.

It gives fifty-two doses of business medicine for $2. What other specialist will give as much for the money? There is scarcely an issue that does not contain a single pointer worth the subscription price. The business man should deny himself almost anything but this little magazine.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

DON'T BUY EXPERIENCE at the cost of business failure.
Rather let the experience of others as explicated by
PRINTERS' INK
be your guide.
Success will then take the place of misfortune.
EVERY ADVERTISER,
EVERY BUSINESS MAN, will find PRINTERS' INK a gainful accessory and prime factor in the conduct of trade.
Subscription $2 for one year—or 52 issues.
PRINTERS' INK, a Journal for Advertisers.
10 Spruce St., New York City.

Frank Hocking Chaplin, Detroit, Mich.

SOME CONSIDERATIONS in favor of subscribing for, reading, studying and advertising in
PRINTERS' INK.

1. PRINTERS' INK is an indispensable weekly for all business men and their associates.

2. PRINTERS' INK is crammed full of interesting and helpful reading matter. It affords more real entertainment, and needed and appropriate instruction to occupied and practical business men than any other publication.

3. PRINTERS' INK presents a more varied, bright, suggestive assortment of model advertisements than can be found in any half dozen periodicals. The study of these must needs be helpful to advertisers or prospective advertisers. Further, all kinds of ads are criticised. And, moreover, every article has useful and practical pointers.

4. PRINTERS' INK reaches all classes, especially advertisers. A reading of any number will convince anybody that advertising in it pays.

PRINTERS' INK costs to subscribers $2 a year; the advertiser $100 a page for one insertion.

So, reader, can you afford to neglect subscribing for or advertising in "The Little Schoolmaster"?

Rev. James Greer Woods, Apartado 305 Mexico, D. F.

"TELL ME SOMETHING I DON'T KNOW."
AND THAT'S NO LIE EITHER.
WHAT YOU DON'T KNOW IS JUST WHAT YOU WANT TO KNOW.
AS A BUSINESS MAN, DO YOU FEEL AS IF YOU KNEW ALL YOU OUGHT TO ABOUT ADVERTISING?
ARE YOU SATISFIED WITH THE RETURNS YOUR ADVERTISING BRINGS YOU?
PRINTERS' INK IS BRIMFUL OF BRIGHT, ORIGINAL IDEAS ON ADVERTISING EACH WEEK FROM THE MOST ENTERPRISING AND SUCCESSFUL ADVERTISERS IN THE WHOLE COUNTRY.
WRITE TO 10 SPRUCE ST., NEW YORK, FOR A SAMPLE COPY.

Chalmers S. Baird.

THE BEST HELP
Is none too good nor too great to aid business.
PRINTERS' INK
Is the best advertising help, and the best advertising is the best business help the world knows of.
PRINTERS' INK WRITERS AND CONTRIBUTORS are experienced advertisers and managers. What they say is practical. Than a $2 subscription to PRINTERS' INK there is no more promisingly helpful business investment.
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Alfred Paschall, Doylestown, Pa.

IDEAS ARE NECESSARY TO SUCCESSFUL
ADVERTISING.
WHERE DO THE MONEY MAKING ADVERTISERS GET THEIR IDEAS?
ASK THEM.
TEN TO ONE
THEY SAY
IN
PRINTERS' INK.

D. R. Bisson, Denver, Col.

IN BAD HEALTH—
Is the business of many a man. If he was feeling poorly he would consult a doctor. He doesn't seem to think that may be his business needs one.
Probably doesn't know that there is such a thing. He ought to know about it, for it may mean financial good health.
Suppose he should try
PRINTERS' INK.
Would it pay? Others think so and have good reason to. Take a little free advice from a sample copy.
10 Spruce St., New York.

Charles A. Starr, St. Louis, Mo.

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS ARE LOST ANNUALLY IN POOR ADVERTISING.
MILLIONS OF DOLLARS ARE MADE ANNUALLY BY THOSE WHO KNOW HOW TO ADVERTISE.
PRINTERS' INK TELLS HOW TO ADVERTISE.
PRINTERS' INK IS CONSULTED BY THE GREAT ADVERTISERS OF THE COUNTRY.
PRINTERS' INK IS A WEEKLY DEVOTED TO THE INTEREST OF MEN WHO ADVERTISE.
ADDRESS 10 SPRUCE STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

A. W. Betterly, Wilkes Barre, Pa.

* 87 WORDS WITH YOU.
Lawyers study BLACKSTONE because it is the fountain head of all legal principles.
European globe-trotters study BAEDEKER because it is a storehouse of information for travelers.
Parliamentarians study CUSHING'S MANUAL because it is the recognized standard for deliberative assemblies.
Railway investors study POOR'S MANUAL because it is packed with railway facts.
And discreet advertisers study PRINTERS' INK each week because it is a mine of ideas for advertising, and the only authority in its peculiar field.
Subscription $2 a year.

Eli Ayres, 63 Chestnut St., East Orange, N. J.

TRADE PAPERS
keep you in touch with every going good thing in your especial line of business.
That's all. They will not keep you in touch with the public and that, to borrow a term of an erudite Senator from Vermont, is
THE GREAT DESIDERATUM.
Proper advertising will do it. No better teacher of such advertising than PRINTERS' INK. Gives you the brightest thoughts of the best advertisers; teaches you to write clearly, tersely and in an insinuating way. (Think about the word "insinuating" for a moment.)
It is par excellence THE journal for advertisers. Two dollars a year, 52 numbers, each a gem with many facets
A request by postal card to No. 10 Spruce St., New York, will bring you sample copy.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

WHICH?
$2. OR $——
COUNT THE COST.

Would you invest Two Dollars with a prospect of making hundreds, perhaps thousands? You can do it this way.

In New York City there is published a weekly magazine called PRINTERS' INK. Its columns are devoted entirely to the interests of newspaper advertising, and contain many suggestive hints from experienced advertisers and their agents.

PRINTERS' INK does for the advertiser what the doctor does for his patient—gives him a prescription, or formula.

You can get this magazine one year for Two Dollars, a small sum compared to the loss sustained by poor advertising.

Send for sample copy to
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

A. E. Edgar, Box 205, Windsor, Ont.

IF YOU WISH TO SELL GOODS, buyers must know the goods are for sale—in other words you advertise.

Nearly every successful advertiser reads a journal for advertisers, and that journal is PRINTERS' INK.

PRINTERS' INK is issued weekly. Price per year, $2.
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Charles B. Younger, Jr., Santa Cruz, Cal.

MILLION IN SHOESTRINGS.

"I am convinced that it can be done, just as it has been done in Cod Liver Oil; select a good shoestring and then advertise; but subscribe to first. I learned my lesson from it, and now my chief occupation is COUNTING COIN."
PRINTERS' INK
"CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE."
SO SAYS A SUCCESSFUL ADVERTISER.

PRINTERS' INK is a weekly journal that teaches advertisers how to advertise.

It costs $2 a year.
It's worth it.
Sample copy free.

* ANY BUSINESS MAN CAN HIRE FOR $2.00

The best brains of the best advertisement writers on this continent.
Some houses pay nearly $200.00 PER WEEK for a man to write their ads. PRINTERS' INK will help you with yours for $2.00 PER YEAR.

It teaches you how to advertise judiciously.

NUMEROUS PATRONS,
HEALTHY BANK ACCOUNT,
HAPPY FEELING.

All of these things will come to those that advertise.

Learn how and where to advertise by subscribing for the PRINTERS' INK.

PUBLISHERS should let the advertisers know where they can get good results by placing an ad in the PRINTERS' INK.
IT PAYS.

J. G. Medlenka, Crowley, La.

FOUR MEN KILLED
their business in a thriving city simply because they did not advertise in the right way. Now, PRINTERS' INK is a weekly journal devoted to telling the business man how to advertise successfully. It is just full of money-making ideas; suggestions from shrewd men who have made advertising a business for years. In has specimen ads each week that will benefit any business. Why not write for a sample copy or send $2.00 for a year's subscription, and have this money-making journal mailed to you for the next 25 weeks?

10 Spruce St.,
New York.

Howard C. Russ, Norwich, Conn.

PRINTERS' INK,
Applied freely to the parts affected with trivial matters of a perplexing nature, has but one result—that of EXTERMINATION.

It is the biggest little thing extant, and the only one of its kind. A neat hand-book, substantial in its construction, full of condensed knowledge and valuable suggestions, to better the condition financially of every business and professional man on earth.

MULTUM IN PARVO.

Stop a minute and let us submit some facts. You are an advertiser, or a printer, or a publisher, or in a trade allied to the art preservative. We are publishers of PRINTERS' INK. It is issued each week, fifty-two times a year, bristling with news and comment and the current thought of advertisers and advertising; the latest good story of the trade; the humor and the newest suggestion, the brightest advertisement and practical advice; advertising methods, experience, novelties, brains, all presented concisely, with apt illustrations, in a compact, easily-read form, and printed in a style that pleases the eye, and is a liberal education in artistic display and efficient arrangement. Are not these worth $2 a year to you?
PRINTERS' INK, 10 Spruce St., New York.

Eli Ayres, 63 Chestnut St., East Orange, N. J.

HOW *
NOT TO ADVERTISE
is just as important to the business man as how to advertise properly. You can spend fortunes in ignorant advertising and you can make fortunes in intelligent advertising. Learn how as well as how not, and this you can do by studying the methods of the advertising scientists who tell the secret for $2 a year.

The GEORGIA BAPTIST is the leading paper of its class in the South.

No other paper in the State devoted to the interests of Afro-Americans has so large a circulation as it.

IT IS A LEADER IN CIRCULATION AND INFLUENCE.

Its readers are intelligent, thrifty, and have profited very much by the educational advantages given by the schools and colleges in the South.

The GEORGIA BAPTIST is a well-equipped newspaper, having modern printing presses and type, and is carefully edited.

No other paper covers its field so successfully and thoroughly as the GEORGIA BAPTIST.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

EVERY
MAN

should take PRINTERS' INK, a weekly journal for advertisers. There are good reasons for this. Its corps of able advertising specialists, its advice and experience of successful advertising business men, its bright, helpful, up-to-date ideas, its being the recognized advertising authority, its danger signals plainly marked along the road to success in advertising are certainly good reasons often given.

But there is even a more eloquent argument than these facts why you should have it: The thousands of our most successful and progressive business men who eagerly and carefully read it each week for the help they get from it. Don't you think it would help you?

Subscription price $2 a year. 10 Spruce St., New York, N. Y.

R. O. Foster, Minneapolis, Minn.

HOW MUCH
WOULD YOU

be willing to give to have your business increased 100 per cent? Surely $2 a year, which is all that 52 numbers of PRINTERS' INK costs.

It is a weekly journal devoted entirely to telling the business man "how to advertise successfully."

It has helped thousands, and will help you if you only give it the chance. Its pages are full of bright suggestions on advertising that are right to the point.

If you once subscribe you always will. Write for a sample copy, or send $2 for a year's subscription to

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Howard C. Russ, Norwich, Conn.

HAVE YOU A BUSINESS?

If so, why not increase it by advertising? Now, don't go ahead without advice, but send $2 for a year's subscription to PRINTERS' INK, and then follow the advice and ideas you will find on its pages every week.

They are from men who have made advertising a life-long study, and business men who have made fortunes by advertising.

Each week you will find specimen ads that will help you if you follow them Write for a sample copy, or send $2 for a year's subscription to

New York.

Howard C. Russ, Norwich, Conn.

THE GUIDING STAR

of a money-making business man is the art of advertising

The guide of every thoughtful and energetic advertiser should be the useful and valuable suggestions of those who are even more successful.

PRINTERS' INK,

a valuable, weekly advertising publication, should be the companion of every business man who values his own time and who is willing to profit by the experience of others who have been advertising successfully for a life-time.

Its pages abound with suggestions, stating in a plain, straightforward manner just what course is necessary to pursue to enable one to achieve success and to improve those who already are successful.

Two dollars brings it to your address for an entire year.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Frank A. Metzrath, New Brunswick, N. J.

TO KNOW
HOW TO USE

your money in advertising, without wasting it, is an art few can master without aid.

Those successful men who have made their business by advertising, and those clever men who make advertising a business, give you the results of their experience, and valuable hints on how to avoid unprofitable experience yourself, in a weekly journal for advertisers.

PRINTERS' INK,

It costs but $2 a year, but will pay for itself the first week you read and heed its suggestions.

A sample copy—like the old maiden's heart and hand—can be had for the asking. No. 10 Spruce St., New York.

John L. Gans, 70 Washington Pl., N. Y City.

MR.
BUSINESS MAN,

WOULD YOU

Consider two dollars too much to pay a man who came to you 52 times a year with actually valuable and practical advice as to how to increase the effectiveness of your advertising—thereby increasing the sales of your goods?

That's what PRINTERS' INK, the magazine devoted to the best ideas in advertising any and all lines of goods, does for $2—visits you 52 times a year, crowded each time with valuable advice as to how to accomplish this result.

Send for sample copy.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

W. Moseley, Elgin, Ill.

MR.
BUSINESS MAN.

If a man were to come to you and offer to largely increase the sales of your goods for $2 hesitate to pay him the money?

WOULD YOU

Well, PRINTERS' INK is a little magazine that tells you how to better advertise your own goods—and it is advertising that sells goods.

Two dollars—and the little magazine comes to you 52 times a year, every issue giving practical instructions just how to accomplish the result.

Send for a sample copy and see how it is covering the field.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

W. Moseley, Elgin, Ill.

VANISHED FROM SIGHT.

As the mammoth balloon, inflated with gas, soars away to unknown realms of space, so will carelessly expended money, used in a vain effort to increase business, be sure to do likewise, unless guided by an experienced hand to a harbor of safety.

PRINTERS' INK,

a most interesting and useful publication, an authority on advertising gives each week timely suggestions from men of experience, who have been riding the billows of successful advertising for a life-time.

Its danger signals carefully warn you of the ruts and quicksands an inexperienced advertiser is likely to encounter, and it gently guides you along the uneven path, until you reach the smooth and even road to prosperity and success.

Two dollars is the amount necessary to expend for a year's subscription.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

LOOK 52x365
EXPERIENCE DERIVED
VS. NUMBER RECEIVED.

No business man—be his trade small or great—can afford to be without a copy of PRINTERS' INK before him constantly.

In both extremes his business is increased by the timely hints received from the "Little Schoolmaster."

PRINTERS' INK, a weekly journal of advertising, published at 10 Spruce St., New York, is a magazine full of advice for advertisers, and is read by business men everywhere.

It teaches the business man to become a successful advertiser and thereby promote a steady flow of trade.

Try it and you will be surprised at the benefits received. Price $2 per annum.

F. H. Main, Kingston, N. Y.

YOU CAN * throw away lots of money in advertising if you don't know how to do it. You can MAKE YOUR advertising profitable if you learn how.
A good way to make ADVERTISING PAY is to spend the small sum of $2 for a practical instructor.
BY SUBSCRIBING FOR PRINTERS' INK, you get a weekly lesson in the art that tells you how.
PRINTERS' INK
is published by Geo. P.
Rowell & Co., 10 Spruce
St., New York. Price is $2 a year. Sample free.

H. J. Hunt, Bridgegort, Conn.

AN ADVANTAGE
IN ADVERTISING.

It has been said you can judge a man by the company he keeps. It is equally true you can judge a newspaper or magazine by the same rule.

PRINTERS' INK, a weekly journal for advertisers, numbers amongst its subscribers thousands of the shrewdest and most successful business men in America.

This means something. They take it for the valuable and helpful ideas obtained from it; for the substantial advice of our ablest experts in advertising; to know the methods employed by successful advertisers.

Probably your competitor takes PRINTERS' INK. If he does, he positively has the advantage of you.

Subscription price $2 a year. 10 Spruce St., New York, N. Y.

R. O. Foster, Minneapolis, Minn.

ADVERTISING DOES NOT PAY *
if you do it at the wrong place, at the wrong time, in the wrong way. Equally not, if considered only a necessary evil.

Advertising is a legitimate business expense—it's part of the business itself.

SYSTEM AND PERSEVERANCE are features of good advertising.

Sound, breezy ads swell the sails of your business craft.

A business craft needs a pilot to guide it safely round the dangerous corners. PRINTERS' INK, a weekly magazine, is a business pilot of thirty years' experience—$2 only per year.

Sample copy free. If interested, address
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Charles G. Zingg, Farmington, Me.

THE ROYAL ROAD **
TO KNOWLEDGE of the art of advertising (an art admitted to be the greatest factor in business success nowadays) is to have the experiences and advice of masters of this art collected and arranged in convenient form for your perusal.

This valuable service can be procured weekly for two dollars a year by buying PRINTERS' INK, a journal for advertisers, published by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., at 10 Spruce St., New York.

N. B. One week's service will be furnished free if you ask for it.

W. N. Gibson, Calgary, Can.

DON'T LIE
AWAKE NIGHTS.

Why lose sleep in thinking out ideas for your ads, with injury to your health and loss to your business? You must sleep, otherwise you can't keep up with the procession.

Let PRINTERS' INK do your worrying. It will only cost you $2 a year; it will save you money; it will prolong your life.

A postal card to 10 Spruce St., New York City, will bring you a sample copy.

H. J. Healy, Springfield, Mass.

To you men who are in business,
Business that should make you wealthy,
I would tell you a good story
That will make you joyful, very;
That will make your days all sunshine,
And at night you shall be happy
If you follow my prescription.

This is the advice I give you,
That you send to New York City,
To Spruce Street, the place exactly.
Geo. P. Rowell and Company
Are the people you should address.
Send them of your hoard two dollars.

They will send you back a paper,
Two and fifty weeks they'll send it.
PRINTERS' INK is what they call it.
Nowhere else is such a paper,
Dainty and well printed is it,
Many are the illustrations,
Goodly is the reading matter,
Matter which instructs the reader.

How to make his business greater,
How to turn a little business
Into one that is much vaster.

Follow the advice that's in it.
It will act on Trade and Commerce
Almost as a Ripans Tabule
Acts upon a sluggish liver.

Many hundreds per cent interest
On the very small investment
You will receive from this paper
If its good advice you follow.

Hasten then and act in this wise,
Do as I herein have bid you,
And you never will be sorry,
But be busy ever after
Until comes that joyful morning
When you'll give up business, wealthy.

W. N. Gibson, Calgary, Can.

ONLY A GIRL FROM THE SUNNY SOUTH,
DIXIE'S LAND OF FLOWERS,

Whispering in your ear the glad tidings about PRINTERS' INK, the advertiser's friend, a neat little book, full of beautiful ideas of how to advertise your business in a way so short and interesting that you save hundreds of dollars every year, and sell more goods.

Two dollars, sent to Geo. P. Rowell & Co., New York, brings you a copy once every week for twelve months.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

TWO DOLLARS' WORTH OF
"PRINTERS' INK"
WILL SAVE
YOU THOUSANDS,

which you may be throwing away now experimenting as an advertiser. PRINTERS' INK, the best and only authority on JUDICIOUS ADVERTISING, offers you a mint of knowledge on the subject from its own brilliant staff; it reveals to you the methods and experiences of America's most successful advertisers, and brings you in contact with and shows you the work of all the brainy ad-experts of the day.

Issued weekly—$2 per year—at 10 Spruce Street, New York.

Theo. Kaysen, Kansas City, Mo.

ADVERTISERS, ARE YOU INTERESTED in improving your advertising, increasing thereby the sales of your goods, for a year's subscription to PRINTERS' INK, a magazine devoted entirely to the newest, best and most practical methods of advertising all lines of goods.
THEN

It comes 52 times a year filled with ideas which you can adopt in advertising your own goods. It will save you money and increase the sale of your goods.

Send for sample copy of PRINTERS' INK, 10 Spruce Street, New York.

W. Moseley, Elgin, Ill.

HOW MANY BUSINESS MEN

would hesitate to pay $2 if thereby their advertising was rendered more effective?

Two dollars expended for a year's subscription to PRINTERS' INK will practically accomplish this result, for that is what the paper is devoted to.

The latest and most effective manner of advertising any and all kinds of goods.

Send for sample PRINTERS' INK, 10 Spruce Street, New York.

W. Moseley, Elgin, Ill.

ADVERTISERS,
PAY
$2

to largely increase the sales of your goods
THIS YEAR?

Well, $2 will pay for a year's subscription to PRINTERS' INK, the weekly journal devoted to the best methods of advertising all lines of goods. Full of suggestions as to how to improve upon your present method of advertising and thereby increase the sales of your goods.

Try it for a year and see your sales increase through the improvement in your methods of advertising. It is doing this for other business men—will do it for you.

Send for sample copy. PRINTERS' INK, 10 Spruce Street, New York.

W. Moseley Elgin, Ill.

A CLUMSY ADVERTISEMENT is like a vulgar salesman—it does not attract customers.

What Noah Webster did for the English language, that PRINTERS' INK does for the art of advertising.

PRINTERS' INK is a 64-page weekly journal for advertisers—a hand-book of advertising. Price per year $2.

Published by
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce Street, - New York.

Chas. B. Young, Jr., Santa Cruz, Cal.

DRAWING CUSTOMERS to your store is half the battle. The way other bright, brainy men have done it, you may do it.

Prosperous merchants and advertisers contribute articles and interviews every week to PRINTERS' INK, telling how they interest the public and lead them to buy goods.

Experienced advertisers acknowledge that they find trade-building suggestions in every issue.

All methods of publicity are discussed. The subscription price ($2 a year) is a mere nothing compared to the help it brings to any business 52 times a year.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Wolstan Dixey, World Building, New York.

BUSINESS MEN
Distrust their own skill in advertising. They also lack time for detail.
PRINTERS' INK,
Two dollars per year. The Little Schoolmaster in Advertising.

Supplies skill, outlines policies, suggests mediums, illustrates forms.

PRINTERS' INK is a text-book and an expert authority on advertising—one of the helps no business man can profitably omit having.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Alfred Paschall, Doylestown, Pa.

A MERCHANT IS NOT DISGRACED

Because he does not know how to successfully advertise his business. But if he refuses to take advantage of his opportunities he will soon be disgraced by having his competitors secure the cream of the trade.

To prevent this he should at once subscribe for PRINTERS' INK, a weekly journal published at 10 Spruce St., New York.

It tells you all about how, when and with whom to advertise.

John H. Stuart, Frankfort, Ky.

STIRRING UP
BUSINESS.

The ways that a prosperous business man has increased his trade are sure to furnish valuable hints to others.

PRINTERS' INK every week is packed full of suggestions from active, successful men about gaining new customers by advertising and other means.

Any bright merchant is sure to get many times his money's worth of practical benefit from a year's subscription. Fifty-two numbers, $2.

"I confess to have culled many bright ideas from its columns."—Ralph Tilton, Advertising Manager Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., Chicago.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Wolstan Dixey, World Building, New York.

'TIS WISE
TO ADVERTISE,
for rightly done it brings the "mon"—the desideratum.

Make advertising your business a part of it, and thus make your business profitable. Add to your own store of knowledge in this line by adopting every good suggestion coming from others—they are worth actual dollars to you. An invaluable medium for the exchange of bright advertising ideas is a weekly journal, published at 10 Spruce St., New York.

PRINTERS' INK,

A sample copy will convince you that you need it every week. The subscription price is $2 a year. From such an investment
YOU MAY REAP A FORTUNE.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

"The Little Schoolmaster," PRINTERS'
INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.
Two dollars a year.
The recognized trade journal of advertising
FOR manufacturer and merchant,
FOR proprietor and clerk,
FOR expert and amateur.

Will M. Clemens, P. O. Box 1716, New York.

DISCOUNT YOUR BILLS.

You could if you were doing more business. You could do more business if you paid more attention to advertising.

You would pay more attention to advertising if you had PRINTERS' INK each week, with its sensible ideas and new methods of advertising fully explained.

You can get it for $2.00 per year, or a sample copy for the asking by addressing 10 Spruce St., New York.

W. F. Brand, Liverpool, N. Y.

JEW
DICIOU
SADVERTIS
INGPAYS.

But the difficulty with most merchants, manufacturers and others seems to be that they require assistance in the construction of their advertisements and information as to how, when and where to place them so as quickest to attract the public eye.

All these matters you will find properly elucidated in the Little Schoolmaster, PRINTERS' INK, published by GEO. P. ROWELL & CO., 10 Spruce St., New York. It will prove a wonderful help to you in more ways than one. It comes to you weekly for the small investment of $2 per year.

Perhaps you'd better write immediately for it, or, if you'd like to sample it, a copy will be sent to you on application.

F. E. Meeker, 719 Warren St., Syracuse, N. Y.

---

* You have met the man in every town whom his neighbors describe as "All wool and a yard wide." In the newspaper world PRINTERS' INK holds this enviable record, and a year's subscription costs you only $2. Send us your name to-day.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St,
New York.

M. J. Devine, Vineland, N. J.

ARE YOU DEAD

certain that your advertising is doing its full duty? Did it ever occur to you that a weekly journal chock full of practical suggestions on advertising could give you a lift once in a while?

PRINTERS' INK

Tells you just what you want to know when you want to know it. It's a weekly — comes out every Wennesday, and if you are a subscriber and do not get it on time you're all out of sorts till it comes. It's worth a hundred and four dollars a year, but we offer it at 1-52d of what it's really worth. It's yours for a year for $2.

Jed Scarboro, Box 63, Station "W," Brooklyn, N. Y.

Riches have wings and fly to those who woo with words of wisdom.

Learn the art of advertising a good article and you can control the flight of golden eagles.

The greatest teacher of this money-getting art is

MR. SELLER:

You have something to sell. You know there are hundreds of possible buyers. How to reach them? There is no one method that will reach them all, but a judicious advertisement will reach and fetch more people than all other methods combined. You are not an expert writer of advertisements, nor can you afford to pay one, but for less than a nickle a week you can get the best, the latest, the brainiest ideas in advertising, not of one expert, but of a dozen ad masters of the art—a regular charged freshly every week with the "pick" of the advertising field. The "picking" is done by men, who are as sensitive to the magnetism of a good advertisement as the needle is to the pole. Magnetism is the crowning glory of an advertisement. Sensationalism is played out. You want advertisements that will not only attract attention, but hold it and draw the crowd into your place. The chiefest virtue of this journal is not in what it shows but in what it suggests. It starts you thinking, combining and adapting to your own needs the examples given, and it GENERATES A CURRENT OF ORIGINAL IDEAS that will carry your business to success, but

STORAGE BATTERY OF ADVERTISING IDEAS

If you're afraid to think

SELL GOODS?

It's one of the hardest things in the world to do. Thousands are trying, few succeeding beyond very moderate successes. You haven't made a fair trial at it if you haven't advertised, and advertised in the correct way. Two dollars a year will bring you a weekly paper, that will teach you how. It tells of the most up-to-date ideas and the experiences of lives devoted to advertising. It is small enough to go in your inside pocket and contains enough ideas to fill the biggest minds.

PRINTERS' INK,

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

ADVERTISERS,
LISTEN,
PLEASE.

I have something interesting to tell you. My name is PRINTERS' INK; my home is 10 Spruce St., New York; my mission, to give weekly assistance to such as you. Through me the best advertising specialists, and the most successful business men, who have made large fortunes by judicious advertising, give you the benefit of their wide experiences. I am wide awake and glean suggestive ideas from the best sources all over the civilized world, and ought to be an invaluable help to you in preparing trade-bringing advertisements. I do all this for the modest sum of $2.00 a year—a trifling sum for such heaping value. Drop me a postal at 10 Spruce St., New York, and I will visit you once for nothing, just to show you what I am capable of doing.

Wm. McCulloch, 172 Harrison St., Pawtucket, R. I.

 THE BEST WAY.

The best way to sell goods is to let people know you have goods to sell.

The best way to let people know you have goods to sell, is to tell about them in the newspapers.

The best way to tell about them in the newspapers, is to tell about them in an attractive way.

The best way to tell about them attractively is to prepare yourself by reading PRINTERS' INK every week.

The best way to read PRINTERS' INK every week is to read it through, from title to tail-piece.

To do this you want your own copy.

To own your copy, you should subscribe for it.

To subscribe for it costs $2.00 a year.

Address,
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

E. L. Smith, Codman Bldg., Boston, Mass.

YOU SPEND MONEY FOR ADVERTISING.

Do you spend it right? Are the results capable of being increased? PRINTERS' INK may lead you up to the very thought you Couldn't Catch.

The very brightest advertisers find it beneficial reading.

Every week. Two dollars a year. A sample copy for the asking.

10 Spruce St., New York.

W. F. West, Greensburg, Ind.

* PRINTERS' INK
for THOSE WHO ADVERTISE is like the
KEY TO A PUZZLE.
It tells
HOW TO DO IT.

It's a weekly journal of sixty pages, devoted wholly to advertising and for the information of advertisers.

$2.00 per year.

Sample copy, post-paid, to any address.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

F. W. Robinson, Boston, Mass.

PRINTERS' INK *
SHOULD BE READ
By Experts and Amateurs
BECAUSE

Its pages contain the sense and nonsense contributed by both classes.

If you are in business you must advertise to be successful.

If you advertise you are either an expert or amateur and in either case you can be assisted by carefully perusing its pages.

The cost of subscription is but two dollars per year.

THE RESULTS PAY.

W. H. Jones, 520 North Second St., Phila., Pa., care Sam'l Bell & Sons.

WANT
your business?

Probably you are trying to now, but did you ever realize that there is a right way to advertise as well as there is for everything else? Now, why not take the advice of men who have made advertising a life-long study; you can do this by subscribing for PRINTERS' INK, which only costs $2.00 a year for 52 numbers. It is a weekly journal which tells the business man how to advertise. It is just full of trade-bringing ideas and each issue has suggestions from business men who have been made millionaires by advertising. PRINTERS' INK has put thousands on the road to fortunes and it can and will do the same for you. Write for a sample copy or subscribe for a year.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St.,
New York.

Howard C. Russ, Norwich, Conn.

YOUR IDEAS * about advertising may be very good, but the ideas you can cull from
PRINTERS' INK
can give yours cards and spades and beat them out.
THE LITTLE SCHOOLMASTER
in the art of advertising is chock full of common sense and business winning suggestions, and if you are CHASING DOLLARS
you cannot afford to be without it, because it is the best authority on the subject of successful advertising published in the world. PRINTERS' INK will be sent TO YOU
one year on receipt of $2.00.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

THOUSANDS CANNOT * be won in Per cent business.
Yet the investor of $2 in an annual subscription to
PRINTERS' INK,
the Little Schoolmaster in advertising,
Who absorbs its suggestions and applies its practical information
Will surely win thousands per cent on his investment and as surely enhance BUSINESS AND PROFITS in generous and gratifying proportion.
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Alfred Paschall, Doylestown, Pa.

HOW **
TO IMPROVE
IN ADVERTISING
is what every ambitious business man is trying to do. What better way is there than the putting together what you know and what the ablest experts and most successful business men know about this subject? Each week PRINTERS' INK, a journal for advertisers, contains the best thoughts of the best specialists and of the most successful business men. In a clear and simple manner it tells you what effective advertising is. Subscription price $2 a year.
10 Spruce St.,
New York,
N. Y.

REPEATERS AT THE POLLS.

Most of our States have adopted the Australian system of voting, but there seems to be no way to prevent repeating at the polls.

Elections were held in several cities this week, and we presume the repeaters got in their usual dirty work. Now, don't be shocked when we say that we are also repeaters. Oh, no; not at the polls. We would not sell our honor by voting twice, but we do repeat every day in the year that ADVERTISING PAYS. But advertising can be made to pay much better than it does, and PRINTERS' INK will show you how.

We know a business man of St. Louis who formerly put the same advertisement in the same newspaper the year round.

While the times were prosperous he enjoyed a good trade, but when the panic came his trade, of course, greatly decreased. He subscribed to PRINTERS' INK and his ads are now new and bright and his business is already in excess of that he enjoyed before the panic.

You have not the time to think of new advertisements for your business, therefore subscribe to PRINTERS' INK, as it receives and publishes the latest and brightest ideas in advertising from all of Uncle Sam's territory. Subscription price $2.00 per year. Address
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

C. L. Alexander, 3965 Westminster Place, St. Louis, Mo.

*The Shrewdest Merchant * Don't know it all,*
But he knows a good deal, and if he reads PRINTERS' INK (a journal for advertisers, published weekly), his knowledge of successful advertising will increase rapidly, because other merchants as bright as himself are telling their advertising experience through its columns. It is only $2.00 a year. Write for sample copy to 10 Spruce St., N. Y.

W. F. Brand, Liverpool, N. Y.

"BREATHES THERE A MAN" of brains, of energy and of ambition who seeks an easier pathway to prosperity?

If so, let him read PRINTERS' INK.

There's not one good reason why he shouldn't, there's every reason why he ought to.

PRINTERS' INK will enable any man to think brighter business thoughts; will assist him to accomplish more effective work in many channels.

PRINTERS' INK will double many a man's value to his employer.

PRINTERS' INK shows where the pitfalls and mire of advertising lie so clearly that "he who runs may read" and avoid them.

PRINTERS' INK will lead the business man to victory, when often but for it defeat would be his portion.

From New Year's Day to December 31 there's not a superfluous or uninteresting line in PRINTERS' INK.

Barring the actual necessities of life, a man cannot spend money to better advantage than in subscribing to PRINTERS' INK.

Progressive people prize PRINTERS' INK. Why not? It lives for them alone.

Two dollars brings PRINTERS' INK to one's door for fifty-two weeks. So, less than four cents a week secures the cream of current advertising knowledge, much of which cannot be acquired in any other way.

Can you beat it? No better time to subscribe than TO-DAY.

Send $2.00 and your address to
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St.,
New York.

Frank Hocking Chaplin, 209 Abbot St., Detroit, Mich.

* A FABLE FOR ADVERTISERS.

Once upon a time there was a giant, a little fellow, but a giant, and all the people loved and admired him on account of his goodness; for in spite of his size, he had a way of helping to great accomplishments; and for so small a giant he was exceedingly wise; and there came a time when other little giants tried to be like him and to do as he did, but the secret was his and they could not fathom it; and thousands testified to his greatness and thought him a prodigy.

For fifty-two looks at this little giant send $2 to PRINTERS' INK, 10 Spruce St., New York.

Eli Ayres, 63 Chestnut St., East Orange, N. J.

The all absorbing question,
"How can I make the most money?"
HOW?
By advertising, and studying the advertisements of others.
WHEN?
Every week in the year.
WHERE?
In PRINTERS' INK, that wideawake, up-to-date magazine, which is bound to keep business humming.

F. P. MacHarg, 100 West Liberty St., Rome N. Y.

Have you ANYTHING to sell? *
Cottons, carnations, clams,
Rhymes, old rags, or yams,
Then you MUST advertise, and your success depends mainly upon how you do it.

It won't pay you to make and laundry your own shirts, nor to worry over writing advertisements.

Keep your brain cool and clear and depend on PRINTERS' INK to teach you ALL that concerns advertising.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

DID YOU EVER TRY *
To poke a hole in the sand?
What effect did it have?
DID YOU EVER THINK
Why your impression was so fleeting?
DID YOU EVER TRY
Advertising?
DID YOU EVER THINK
It was unprofitable—fleeting in its effect?
DID YOU EVER TRY
Intelligent Advice upon this Important Matter?
DID YOU EVER THINK
That it might pay you to do so?
You can get some intelligent pointers on this important matter from
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Chas. A. Starr, 4213 Olive St., St. Louis, Mo.

BUT SAY IT STRONG."
Every issue of PRINTERS' INK is a world of knowledge in itself. Advertising "knowledge"—the kind of "knowledge" that enables a merchant to successfully operate his advertising department with a perceptible increase in his business as the result. PRINTERS' INK contains weekly the cream of all advertising knowledge and thoughts that are bright and crisp, written interestingly with a view to benefiting those who read.
A $2 note will bring it to you one year, 52 times, or for the price of a postal and a drop of ink you can obtain a sample copy free. "Uncle Sam" finds us at 10 Spruce St., New York.

Theo. E. Payne, 2519 Master St., Phila., Pa.

BRIMFUL *
of bright, brisk and bran new ideas that will whet a man's money getting faculties every week in the year. If you want to touch elbows with the keenest, choicest and most successful advertisers under the canopy of heaven, send your little two dollars for a year's subscription to PRINTERS' INK. If 52 copies of such a journal are not your money's worth, what under the sun do you expect for a couple of "cartwheels"?
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St.,
New York.

WHAT *
PRINTERS' INK HAS DONE
for others it can do for you. It has awakened many a business man to do better advertising, that has brought him, as sure as night follows day, better success. Each week the best experts and most successful advertisers tell you what they know about advertising. No business man with an ambition to succeed, can afford to be without it. Subscription price $2 a year.
10 Spruce St.,
New York, N. Y.

R. O. Foster, Minneapolis, Minn.

FIFTY-TWO *
FOR TWO $.
Valuable and instructive assistants, one each week—such is the merchant's counselor and friend—the advertiser's right hand.
PRINTERS' INK,
$2 per year.
Geo. P. Rowell & Co.,
No. 10 Spruce St.,
New York City.

L. R. Rollinson, 6 Whitaker St., Savannah, Ga.

 A man who wants to succeed and is desirous of learning something about how to get BUSINESS, even in dull times, must not fail to keep up with the times. He must get an EDUCATION in the field that is so often sadly neglected that leads to success, viz.,
IN ADVERTISING.
Any man can secure this education by subscribing for PRINTERS' INK, a paper published in the interest of advertisers
—52 WEEKS—
A copy every week for a year, containing hundreds of ideas, all for $2.00.

Chas. R. Ford, 28 Main St., Cohoes, N. Y.

* PRINTERS' INK has a new and added significance, in that it is the title of a publication which aims to teach the business man the art of successful advertising. Conducted on practical lines and being a product of brains and experience, the pages of sparkle with bright thoughts, new ideas and sensible suggestions on that important subject to the business world. "How to make advertising profitable."
PRINTERS' INK
It is nothing short of a blunder to overlook the advantage of having the little book reach you every week. The best advertising ability in the country at your service for $2.00 per year.
Sample copy free. Address
10 Spruce St., New York, N. Y.

B. H. Culbertson, care Westinghouse Mach. Co., Pittsburgh, Pa.

* FOUR CENTS A VISIT.
Yes, for less than that, George P. Rowell & Co. will send to you once a week an expert in the art of advertising, a specialist with thirty years' experience behind him, who will infuse new life and vigor and success into your business; revive your declining trade, inspire you with renewed hope, and do you more good than anything of the kind in the country. Send $2 to them and get PRINTERS' INK for a year. You will soon find it as indispensable as a bank account.

Frank Moynahan, Danvers, Mass.

Anybody would accept
TWO GOLD DOLLARS in exchange for
TWO PAPER DOLLARS.
The gold end of this trade is expanded indefinitely when you subscribe for
PRINTERS' INK.
IT'S . . . . . A . . . . . GEM.
$2.00 per year.
Address PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St.,
New York.

Anonymous.

 HAVE YOU SEEN IT?
I mean that useful little weekly journal, PRINTERS' INK, devoted to the interests of advertisers, and which is so necessary to every one who is anxious to succeed in business.
DO YOU HAVE IT?
No? Then you are losing ground while your successful rival, who has already subscribed for it, is gaining, because he has something to help him in his advertising. It only costs $2.00 a year.
DO YOU WANT IT?
Of course you do; and if you will send at once to 10 Spruce St., New York City, and receive a sample copy, you will soon realize what you have lost by not having it before.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

IF YOU WANT TO KNOW
what others have learned in advertising by "hard knocks" get the "Little Schoolmaster" to tell you.
WHAT IS IT?
You've surely heard—land sakes, it's been talked about enough—PRINTERS' INK, a bright, brisk little weekly brochure, brimful of the juice of advertising experience. Two dollars a year.

Jed Scarboro, Box 63. Station W, Brooklyn, N. Y.

IF $2.00
WORTH OF INFORMATION
do you not consider it a good investment? Well, that's what a TWO DOLLAR
outlay for PRINTERS' INK will do (calculated on the most conservative basis). People who have tried it cannot doubt it. People who haven't, are not competent to say $2.00 entitles you to be your own judge.

R. L. Cunningham, 1414 Magnolia Av., Knoxville, Tenn.

2,000 PER CENT PROFIT.

I am a business man and an ad-smith for myself. Once a year I spend $2 for a subscription to PRINTERS' INK, and I regard the above figure as but an indication of my profit.

I believe that any business man in any business who will take PRINTERS' INK and carefully read its bright pages, and endeavor to apply to his own needs the original advertising ideas and valuable experiences, will gather from his $2 investment as big dividends as I do.

PRINTERS' INK, a Journal for Advertisers, $2 a year. Sample copy sent on request.

E. French, Red Bank, N. J.

MONEY, MONEY *
EVERYWHERE.
IS IT COMING YOUR WAY?

Just a suggestion. Each week there is published a journal which is aiding many thousands of the best business men in this country to commercial prosperity. It is called PRINTERS' INK, a journal for advertisers. It is filled with ideas of the brightest lights in the advertising world. It shows methods used, and results obtained by some of the great advertisers. In short, it gives the best information any business man can acquire, and costs only $2.00 a year.

*PERSISTENCE, Are the cardinal virt-VARIETY, ues in advertising.
PRINTERS' INK, $2 per year.

The Little Schoolmaster in advertising. Is the gospel urging these virtues and teaching how they may best be supported and maintained.

PRINTERS' INK
Suggests Ideas,
Illustrates Forms,
Gives Information,
Names Best Mediums.

It is the handbook, gazetteer, encyclopædia, exchange of the advertising manager.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St.,
New York.

Alfred Paschall, Doylestown, Pa.

THE MAN who pays $1 for a dog and sells him for $3 makes a profitable investment.
THE MAN who pays $2 for an IDEA worth $24 makes a better one.
THE MAN
in business who reads PRINTERS' INK every week and can't get ideas worth $2 a month must be very "slow."

PRINTERS' INK is $2 a year—52 issues of ideas.

10 Spruce street, New York.

Gazette, Newark, N. J.

THE WEAPON *
OF ATTACK
in business is the advertisement. It can be fired on the army of shoppers with the effects of a Gatling gun on a mob, but it must be aimed right. The history of past attacks and the maneuvers of the present are explained weekly in a most concise and pleasing manner in PRINTERS' INK. This business journal costs $2 a year. Send for sample copy.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce street, New York.

R. L. Curran, 111 W. 34th street, New York.

BETTER *
ADVERTISING BETTER RESULTS,
better teacher better pupil. We are all trying to better our advertising. Why not ask the help of the best teacher? PRINTERS' INK is the acknowledged superior of all advertising journals. Each week this bright magazine fairly shines with the sayings and experiences of the best specialists and most successful business men. It tells you what good and bad advertising is. Perhaps that's the matter with your business—bad advertising.

Subscription price $2 a year.
10 Spruce street,
New York, N. Y.

R. O. Foster, Minneapolis, Minn.

HOW BIG
the subject of advertising is few men know; how big the results that can be won by it few suspect,
HOW LITTLE time and experience it takes to learn these things all can find out by reading
PRINTERS' INK,
a weekly paper.

"A PALTRY $2.00
A YEAR."

NEW YORK, April 15, 1885.

Gentlemen: You ask me, an advertisement writer, to suggest an advertisement of PRINTERS' INK. Why should I try to induce advertisers to read the sheet? You give them, for a paltry two dollars a year, a thousand such ideas as fellows of my ilk are trying to sell for two dollars apiece. The devil take PRINTERS' INK.

Sincerely yours,
* * * * *

PRINTERS' INK—weekly—30 to 50 pages of meaty matter. Dubbed "The Little Schoolmaster in the Art of Advertising." Published by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., 10 Spruce St., New York. Costs only $2 a year.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

ARE YOU
ON
ADVERTISING?

You cannot, of course, subscribe to all the publications in the land. It would be too expensive and you would not have the time to read them. Do you know that some one else is doing this for you? The best products of the best advertising brains, hosts of apt suggestions from advertising experts and good live hints from successful advertisers are published weekly in PRINTERS' INK. It does the work; you get the benefit; $2 a year. Get a sample copy. 10 Spruce street, New York.

Albert Ulmann, 175 Broadway, New York.

SUCCESSFUL ADVERTISING, *
SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS.

In the modern mercantile world advertising is a potent factor. Call to mind the most successful merchant, the most successful newspaper or magazine, the most successful and salable articles in any line of merchandise and you will find the most successful advertisers. If you would have a successful business, know how to advertise. PRINTERS' INK touches this very point. It tells all about advertising. It is the best text-book published in America on this subject. It has been the tonic that has stimulated the growth of many a successful enterprise.

Subscription price $2.00 a year.
10 Spruce St.,
New York, N. Y.

R. O. Foster, Minneapolis, Minn.

A magazine that should be * read by every advertiser. Do you read it?

Business men are always on the lookout how to advertise their goods to the best advantage.

PRINTERS' INK

tells when to advertise, and how, in fact all about it. It knows what it's talking about, too.

Send five cents for a copy to PRINTERS' INK, 10 Spruce St., New York.

Arthur Heath, 133 East Fifth St., Plainfield, N. J.

SUCCESSFUL *
ADVERTISERS

Have long since learned that in order to continue successful, they must keep well posted as to what other successful advertisers are doing. That is the reason why it now requires

20,000 copies of PRINTERS' INK

each week to supply the demand of people interested in advertising. PRINTERS' INK contains ideas and suggestions contributed by the best authorities on the subject of advertising in the country. This Little Schoolmaster in the art of advertising is issued weekly at $2.00 a year and a sample copy costs only the asking, at 10 Spruce St., New York.

Chas. A. Woolfolk, Louisville, Ky.

Add Another Cipher *
To Your Fortune This Year.

Make business hum from now on. Learn how to advertise your wares and learn from the experience of successful advertisers. It is all told in PRINTERS' INK, a journal for advertisers, published weekly at 10 Spruce St., New York. $2.00 a year. Sample copy free.

W. F. Brand, Liverpool, N. Y.

HOW TO ADVERTISE *
successfully is told in PRINTERS' INK every week by those who have been most successful at it.

HOW NOT TO do it is also told in this bright little weekly. If you have goods to sell read it and profit by the experience of others. PRINTERS' INK is published at 10 Spruce St., New York, and the price is $2.00 for 52 numbers.

J. Fred Wright, 219 Monroe St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

 BLAME YOURSELF
if your advertising proves a failure.

A hundred dollars, a thousand, or a hundred thousand may be expended fruitlessly simply for lack of knowledge.

PRINTERS' INK, a journal for advertisers, shows how to advertise successfully.

All the knowledge needed can be gleaned from its columns.

The marvelous prosperity gained by many advertisers is due in the main to the teaching of PRINTERS' INK.

The master minds in the art of advertising tell in its pages the best of what they know.

That tells all there is really worth knowing.

Issued 52 times in the year and costs only $2.
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce street, New York.

Frank Hocking Chaplin, Detroit, Mich.

"Cast thy bread upon the waters, and it shall return after many days."
CAST THY CHECK for $2 into a year's subscription to PRINTERS' INK and Benefits will begin to pour in upon thee before many days and repay thee 100 fold—for it is a Bible—a text-book and an encyclopedia combined.

* FILL YOUR BRAIN
from the rich store of business knowledge contained in PRINTERS' INK.

All connected with a business house, from president to office boy, will profit by a study of its fertile pages.

As a reliable guide to money-making by wise advertising PRINTERS' INK excels.

Foresight tells you, prudence advises you, experience admonishes you to be a reader of PRINTERS' INK.

Weekly, $2 per year.
PRINTERS' INK,
A Journal for Advertisers,
10 Spruce st., New York City.

Frank Hocking Chaplin, Detroit, Mich.

NEW IDEAS are more valuable to a business man than an increase of capital—they are an increase of capital—of a kind of capital that has good staying qualities. Would you like some new ideas? For 4 cents each week you can get anywhere from ten to fifty new ideas from PRINTERS' INK.

PRINTERS' INK is a magazine that devotes itself to collecting new ideas for the merchant, the manufacturer, the salesman—for the man in any business—ideas that will be valuable to him in every way. It tells HOW TO ADVERTISE, WHEN TO ADVERTISE, WHERE TO ADVERTISE. It teaches the science of writing effective ads. It publishes the opinions of prominent people upon different methods of advertising.

Send to Geo. P. Rowell, 10 Spruce street, New York, for a copy, and see for yourself.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

THE
SCHOOL-MASTER

Teaches business men, manufacturers and others the how, when, why and wherefore of scientific and paying advertising.

PRINTERS' INK is his name, and he teaches the young (and old) idea how to shoot to the best possible advantage in the way of advertising.

If you feel that your advertising is not proving sufficiently remunerative, or if you are about to launch your name and business before the people and feel a sort of incapacity for the proper construction of your advertising matter, let GEO. P. ROWELL & CO. send you PRINTERS' INK for a year and relieve you of your perplexities.

Every week—fifty-two numbers—sixty-four pages—a whole year—only $2.

Write right now to 10 Spruce St., New York.

F. E. Meeker, 719 Warren St., Syracuse, N. Y.

IT IS THE MILK OF THE COCOANUT

THAT IS STRENGTHENING. PROPERLY EXECUTED ADVERTISING IS THE PANACEA FOR ALL BUSINESS INDISPOSITION AND WEAKNESS.

WHERE DO YOU OBTAIN A THOROUGHLY COMPLETE TREATISE ON THE MANNER AND MODE OF SURE AND CERTAIN BUSINESS RECUPERATION?

EVERY ONE OUGHT TO KNOW. SEND $2 TO THAT ADVERTISING GEM—PRINTERS' INK—10 SPRUCE ST., N. Y.

B. W. Jones, Hall Bldg., Kansas City, Mo.

A COLLEGE FOR ADVERTISERS.

PRINTERS' INK, the well known journal, is so intimately associated, everywhere, with the interests of advertisers, that acquaintance with it, each week, becomes equal to a professional education in its line. Full of new and bright ideas, suggestions and examples, warnings and surprises, from the experiences, it supplies an abundance of material, especially concerning the writing and displaying of advertisements, of the greatest practical value to advertisers, large or small. To many it literally proves itself worth more than its weight in gold; and yet it may be had for less than four cents a week, namely, $2 per year; sixty-four pages weekly. Subscribe for it, or, if you prefer to see it first, send for sample copy, free. When you advertise in any book or periodical, or print an announcement, you make use of printers' ink; therefore, the best of all the fruits of the press issued in the interest of advertisers bears the name, PRINTERS' INK.

Address PRINTERS' INK, 10 Spruce St., New York City.

Felix Myers, P. O. Box 526, New York.

SEARCH
"FROM NOW TILL DOOMSDAY"
and you will not find elsewhere so much important information on the science of advertising as is contained in PRINTERS' INK in one short year. Yes, it's a comprehensive assertion, but one which the well informed will readily admit. As an aid to legitimate money-making, and as an instructor in the true principles and practice of advertising, PRINTERS' INK has no compeer. It is the very Napoleon of business literature. Two dollars brings it weekly for a year.

A sample copy for the asking.
10 Spruce St., New York.

By a Detroit Contributor.

WHY DON'T YOU LEARN HOW?

There is only one way to advertise.
B. C. ads won't sell goods.
A. D. modern ones will.

If you are an advertiser and wish to harvest the shekels, you should study the art of advertising. Two dollars will bring you the standard advertising primer a whole year. May we send you a sample copy?

PRINTERS' INK,
10 SPRUCE ST.,
NEW YORK.

James W. McLeod, Calais Times, Calais, Me.

BUSINESS WON'T PAY
Unless it is everlastingly pushed wisely.
WISE PUSHING
Can't be done unless you know how to do it.
CAN'T KNOW HOW
Unless you keep in touch. PRINTERS' INK touches the man next to you. That's why you want it.

William L. Prizer, care Vacuum Oil Co., Rochester, N. Y.

ONE EXAMINATION of the
PRINTERS' INK will convince you that it is a good thing.
A SECOND examination will INDUCE you to subscribe for it.
A TRIAL of three months will Convince you that you cannot do without it.

If it has this effect on subscribers, the advertisers are bound to reap good results.

J. G. Medlenka, Crowley, La.

Take a man,
A desk,
A pencil,
An idea, and let him weave about it (the idea) a convincing, interesting, lasting, clinging, clinching story of his goods—

Say just the right things, the right way, and do it so it will ring, circulate, be talked of and remembered.

There is a journal for advertisers, issued every week, 52 times a year, whose every page breathes artistic advertisement. It is "crammed" with ideas, elaborated by the foremost advertising thinkers of the age.

It is as much of a commercial necessity as your book keeper. It is PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

George S. Walters, Washington, Ind.

Wouldn't a better knowledge of advertising be of value
in your business?

If you think so, there's a little journal, published every Wednesday at 10 Spruce St., New York, which will help you to secure this knowledge. It is called PRINTERS' INK, and is verily "The Little Schoolmaster in the Art of Advertising," filled, each week, from cover to cover (some on the outside too), with everything of value to business men—practical suggestions from those who have learned, by experience, how to advertise successfully; articles by the best advertising critics of the country on advertising—as it is, as it was, as it should be. The subscription price is $2.00 per year. The person will have to be very dull who does not get his money's worth out of every number.

10 SPRUCE ST.,
NEW YORK.

James E. Chase, 6 Whitaker St., Savannah, Ga.

THE
LITTLE SCHOOLMASTER COMES AS NEAR BEING AN ABSOLUTE NECESSITY TO THE UP-TO-DATE BUSINESS MAN AS ANY ONE ITEM CAN REASON-
ABLY BE. IT FILLS A NEED WITH PROGRESSIVE PEOPLE THAT NO OTHER INVESTMENT OF FIFTY TIMES THE COST CAN SUPPLY.
WHY ARE YOU NOT AMONG THE SUBSCRIBERS, WHEN IT COSTS YOU ONLY TWO HUNDRED CENTS FOR 52 WEEKS?

R. L. Cunningham, 1414 Magnolia Ave., Knoxville, Tenn.

IF YOU  KNOW HOW TO ADVERTISE
You will find many valuable helps and hints each week in an interesting publication called PRINTERS' INK, published at 10 Spruce St., New York.
IF YOU DON'T KNOW HOW
The tuition for a year will be only two dollars—the subscription price of this same bright magazine, which is sometimes called "The Little Schoolmaster in the art of advertising."
A sample copy can be had by writing for it.

A. H. Ford, 226 Bourbon St., New Orleans, La.

NOTHING **
PLAINER THAN the fact that
PRINTERS' INK
is the first paper every businessman and woman should read, and every youth and every maiden, who is going to have anything to do with business, study.
5 cents a copy, $2 a year.
Issued weekly.
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St.,
New York.

R. L. Curran, P. O. Box 899, Chicago.

BUT WEIGHTY.
All the information necessary in order to advertise your business in a proper and paying manner can be obtained from the pages of PRINTERS' INK. Being of small size and convenient to carry in your pocket, you can always have this little encyclopædia of advertising with you for handy reference. Price, $2 per year. Published by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., 10 Spruce street, New York.

John F. Lafferty, 1008 Ward st., Phila., Pa.

DON'T SHOOT
at random—don't waste your ammunition. A year's tuition under the "Little Schoolmaster" will give you a sharp eye, steady nerves and the ability to aim right. In other words if you want to make every dollar count in advertising subscribe for PRINTERS' INK. It costs $2 a year and will help you to save thousands.

Jed Scarboro, Box 63, Station "W," Brooklyn, N. Y.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

IF YOU'RE LINED to advertise, and UIRING
INK where, how, when? or REDULOUS, or feel a sort of APACITATION in the matter,
PRINTERS' INK, the little black and white schoolmaster, will prove a wonderful source of comfort and assistance to you in the way of ideas and forms for your advertisement and the proper mediums and localities for placing them where they will do the most good. The simple investment of $2 will bring this valuable publication to you every week for a year, and your ideas will be augmented and your faculties brightened by its careful perusal. PRINTERS' INK fills every requirement for the up to-date advertiser. Don't you think you'd better have it added to your weekly mail matter right now? Or possibly you'd like first to see a sample copy. Write to Geo. P. Rowell & Co., 10 Spruce St., New York, and they'll send you one.

F. E. Meeker, 719 Warren St., Syracuse, N. Y.

THAT PAPER NAMED
PRINTERS' INK
will interest all business men, because it is published in the interest of advertising. Stop a minute and think what a wide field that is. But PRINTERS' INK covers it and does it well.
BRIGHT,
IT IS NEWSY, INSTRUCTIVE.
Its suggestions and criticisms are invaluable to both experts and amateurs.
TWO DOLLARS A YEAR,
WORTH MORE.
SEND FOR FREE SAMPLE COPY.
Geo. P. Rowell & Co.,
10 Spruce St., New York.

L. E. Bowden, 4 Liberty Sq., Boston, Mass.

WOULD YOU
Believe it—There's more money being made to-day through judicious advertising than by any other method. There's also lots of money being wasted by injudicious advertising. Have you had an experience of that kind? Want to remedy it? Suppose you take a little advice from a paper devoted to good advertising. Such a paper is
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., N. Y.
$2 per year in advance.

Charles A. Starr, Pass. Dep. B. & O. So. Wstrn. R. Co., St. Louis, Mo.

*

A man starting in to advertise more or less, without previous knowledge upon the subject, is destined to pay a pretty stiff price for his experience whether he succeeds or not. Subsequently let him read his first copy of
PRINTERS' INK
(A journal for advertisers), and the chances are that he will continue to read every issue thereafter and sooner or later become convinced that had he sent $2.00 per year to 10 Spruce St., New York, in the first place, he would have received information enabling him to have procured the same publicity for LESS MONEY.

Geo. H. Pierce, 70 Free St., Portland, Me.

"AN ADVERTISER'S ADVISER."
PRINTERS' INK has earned for itself that distinction. Every issue it teems with suggestions — advice for business men. The adoption of a single suggestion repays more than the amount of the subscription price of two dollars. Your own interest is the best reason why you should have it. There's another. Your competitor reads it.

G. C. Earle, Richmond, Va.

PRINTERS' INK is a Regular weekly publication
Intended for advertisers,
Newspaper publishers, and all
Those concerned in advertising.
Every issue is brimful of Rare and valuable matter,
Suggestions and novel schemes,

Ideas for retail advertisers, etc.
No paper printed gives so much
Knowledge for $2 a year.
10 Spruce St., New York.

John Brennan, 240 Navy St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

A BUSY
BUSINESS MAN
said he sat up nights reading PRINTERS' INK.
If you want to know why a busy business man sat up nights reading PRINTERS' INK, send $2 for a year's subscription to
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce street, New York.

George Henry Smith, Knoxville, Tenn.

GENTLEMEN—Inclosed please find check of $2, in payment of PRINTERS' INK for one year.
I am, very truly yours,
LEWIS GARRISON.

We are sending out each week 22,250 copies of PRINTERS' INK in answer to letters like the above. Are you a subscriber?

Lewis Garrison, Columbus, O., State Journal.

READER, *
Have you worry and bother in preparing copy? Suffer for want of a thorough knowledge of display? Do you get bad returns?
WOULD YOU
pay $2.00 a year for a magazine which would actually teach you how to prepare copy, properly display it and get good returns?
PRINTERS' INK, an advertising magazine published at 10 Spruce St., N. Y. City, does all that, and more besides. Its ready-made ads alone are worth the subscription price. Send for a sample copy and you will SUBSCRIBE.

No Address.

YOU NEED IT
IN YOUR BUSINESS.
Whatever your business may be, you must employ judicious advertising. To enable you to ascertain what judicious advertising is, is what you need. Read it, and study it, and in a surprisingly short time, its ideas will become your own, and your improved methods will produce telling results. PRINTERS' INK is but $2 per year, and comes every week.
PRINTERS' INK
Send subscription to 10 Spruce St., New York.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

IT'S MAKING MEN THINK
your way that brings trade your way.

That's what advertising does if it's the right kind. Is your advertising doing all you want it to? Are you sure it's the right kind? You ought to be positive in this matter because, if you're up in the front ranks in the business army you're spending lots of money advertising. Wouldn't you give $2 to have three or four of the best advertisers in the world, ones who have made advertising pay, tell you that you were using effective methods or point out some little defect that you could easily remedy and help you to strike just where you aimed? PRINTERS' INK, a book published weekly at 10 Spruce St., New York, will give you just such information. It's a weekly consultation with such men as we've spoken of. The most reliable information to be had on the very subject you want to know the most about; costs you $2 a year. They'll mail you sample copy free.

F. J. McAllister, New Kensington, Pa.

A good prescription for business stagnation:
Rx. One copy of PRINTERS' INK.
Take once a week for 52 weeks.
Then renew.

John T. Lafferty, 1008 Ward St., Phila., Pa.

That there are
MANY MEN OF MANY MINDS
is undoubtedly true; but this old and trite saying is not applicable to the many subscribers to PRINTERS' INK when asked their opinion of that bright journal's utility as a big helper to business men.

If you will send $2.00 (the subscription price) you will soon be one of the
MANY MEN OF ONE MIND.

Write for sample copy to 10 Spruce St., N. Y.

Geo. Graham, Box 192, Halifax, N. S.

IF YOU DON'T GET
a copy of this paper every week, you may be sure that you are missing much valuable information. Just examine any issue carefully and note the many bright, practical, brainy suggestions contained in a single number of
PRINTERS' INK,
then multiply the same by 52 and make up your mind whether, as a live, wide-awake business man, you can afford to miss such a treasury of clever, trade-drawing and success-achieving plans and methods. For a whole year—for 52 numbers—
EVERY WEEK
IT WILL COST YOU $2.00.

Albert Ulmann, 175 B'way, N. Y. City.

A $2 $2 $2 $2 $2
INVESTMENT $2
on the Stock Exchange for cigars, $2 theater tickets, office help, won't $2 amount to much, but it will get 52 issues of
PRINTERS' INK,
full each week of just what you want to know about advertising; how others succeed; why some fail. Send
$2 $2 to-day to PRINTERS' INK, 10 Spruce
$2 St., N. Y. City. A sample copy for $2 the asking.
$2 $2 $2 $2

S. J. Platt, 56 Wash. Ave., Detroit, Mich.

YOU ARE AN ADVERTISER.
Do your advertisements bring you the greatest possible returns?
If no, your advertisements need a tonic. That tonic is a pleasant one and may be had in weekly doses for a year for $2.
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Chas. B. Young, Jr., Santa Cruz, Cal.

WHAT DO YOU THINK of a physician who does not read a medical paper, of a school teacher who does not take an educational journal—or of an advertiser who does not take a journal devoted to the art of advertising?
THE JOURNAL is Printers' Ink.
Issued weekly, price per year $2.
PRINTERS' INK,
——a journal for advertisers——
10 Spruce St., New York.

Chas. B. Young, Jr., Santa Cruz, Cal.

How will this suit you—
To send Geo. P. Rowell & Co., of 10 Spruce St., N. Y., $2.00 and receive PRINTERS' INK one year. It is one of the neatest, nicest printed little books that ever passed through the mail; crispy, bright, fully up-to-date, brimful of the very best ideas on advertising that ever sprung from the fertile brain of man. Yes, it does, and if it fails to interest you, then you are a moss BACK.

Miss Emma Fall, Fulton, Ky.

52)2.00

3 11-13

What's that?
Why, just 3-11-13 cents a week that it will cost you for PRINTERS' INK, the little school master of the art of advertising right.

One advertiser says he has never yet seen a copy that was not alone worth the yearly subscription price.

If you advertise send for free sample copy and see how much you don't know about it. It'll surprise you.
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St.,
New York.

E. W. Mitchell, Machias, Me.

WANTED—
BUSINESS.
Every merchant, manufacturer, publisher wants it. The question is how to get it. Have you tried advertising? Did it pay? If not, why? Perhaps you did not take advice. Sometimes that makes it pay. Good advice costs but little compared with the gain, and the very best advice can be obtained from
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St.,
New York.
Fifty-two letters of advice per year for $2.00. Samples free. Cash in advance.

Chas. A. Starr, St. Louis, Mo.

VISITS
AT LESS THAN
4 CENTS
A VISIT.
What other specialist would work as cheap? PRINTERS' INK makes 52 weekly calls during the year, and charges only $2 for the whole job. This price includes good, wholesome, relishable medicine, pleasant to take and easy to digest. Average number of patients last year 17,768. Office and pharmacy 10 SPRUCE ST., NEW YORK.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

GOOD *
ADVERTISING BRINGS GOOD RESULTS.

The supreme test of an advertisement is not so much its fine appearance, its good position, its neat display (while all these are desirable features), but rather the results as figured in dollars and cents.

PRINTERS' INK

is a journal published for live advertisers and is a teacher of how and when and where to advertise properly.

This little journal is issued weekly at 10 Spruce St., New York, and costs only $2 a year. It is brimful of pointers from America's foremost advertisers. A sample copy for the asking.

Chas. M. Wiener, South Whitley, Ind.

How small is a ship's compass in comparison with its engines and boilers.

Yet who will say that the compass is not as essential to a prosperous journey as the massive machinery by which the ship is propelled.

Equally important is a compass on the perilous advertising seas.

That tremendous motive power—money—becomes oft times its own destroyer when the compass is lacking.

PRINTERS' INK is a compass—a safe compass. Small, but how important to the advertiser.

EVERY ADVERTISER SHOULD HAVE IT.

10 Spruce St., New York.

Joseph B. Bowles, 181 Lincoln Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Every business and professional man and woman wants to make known to the world, which seems immense, but is within easy reach, the merits of their commodities and talents. There is only one way and you must advertise, or die, but how and where?

Millions are made and thousands are lost by advertising, and yet there is nothing really lost if we learn what advertising is. You want a very large, intelligent newspaper audience, a good mouth-piece, a clear voice and something nice to say—above all, you want a reliable, experienced friend to advise and instruct you. The best adviser and instructor you can find is a weekly journal, devoted entirely to the interests of the live people who advertise. Only two dollars a year in advance. Sample copies free. Published at 10 Spruce St., New York.

It will become the staff of your business life.

Clarence Freeman, Box 1118, Phila., Pa.

AT FIRST BLUSH *
A business man is apt to consider

PRINTERS' INK

merely in its press-room sense; whereupon the phrase

PRESENTS

to his mind a vision of begrimed "devils" grinding out the printed statement. But the term means a revelation when he embraces

THE GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY of perusing PRINTERS' INK, that journal of advertising science, by practical advertisers, for progressive advertisers. A sample copy—to be had for the asking—contains more pointers that are useful than can be obtained from months of hard knocks in the school of experience. Two dollars secures each weekly issue during the year. PRINTERS' INK, 10 Spruce St., New York.

TO LIVE BUSINESS MEN,

John B. Hooker, Jr., Fly Creek, N. Y.

HAVE YOU ANY BRAINS? **

Of course you have. But do you know how to use them when you want to write an advertisement?

NO.

Can you afford to pay a man a large salary to write them?

NO.

If for $2.00 a year you could be taught to write an advertisement would you spend it?

CERTAINLY.

Then subscribe for PRINTERS' INK, published at 10 Spruce St., N. Y. City. This weekly visitor contains helpful articles, and sample advertisements, written by the best "Ad" smiths, who have made advertising a study. Sample copy will be sent upon request.

M. Field Kelsey, 1997 Lexington Ave., New York City.

My friend, you must remember that you are never too old to learn. Would you like to learn something about advertising that you don't know? If so, you should subscribe for PRINTERS' INK, a little weekly magazine, published at 10 Spruce St., New York, full of bright ideas and suggestions. It only costs $2 per year. Try it. Write for sample copy.

Norman E. Jennett, Box 50, Clinton, N. C.

IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING TO SELL * and do not advertise your wares, you cannot be anxious to sell.

Advertisements are bad, indifferent and good. Readers of PRINTERS' INK are apt to become writers of good advertisements—advertisements that sell goods.

If you would write correct advertisements read PRINTERS' INK. Published weekly. Price per year, $2.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Chas. B. Young, Jr., Santa Cruz, Cal.

WRITING INK was early made, but the invention of printing necessitated

PRINTERS' INK,

and THAT has

REVOLUTIONIZED THE WORLD, and it

WILL REVOLUTIONIZE YOUR BUSINESS

if you make a plentiful and discriminating use of it.

PRINTERS' INK is only $2 per year. It is the publisher's mentor and the manufacturer's and tradesman's money-getter. Send for sample copy to 10 Spruce St., New York.

E. C. Walker, 28 Lafayette Place, New York City.

PRINTERS' INK.

NOT the varnish-like substance that printers use to make impressions on paper so as to show the style and finish of the type.

BUT the little sixty-four page advertising paper that all hustling advertisers use to make impressions on the people so as to show the style and quality of their goods.

P. M. Colbert, 2126, N. Calvert St., Baltimore, Md.

"NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS." *

This is only an old-fashioned way of saying that

NOBODY SUCCEEDS LIKE THE SUCCESSFUL ADVERTISER.

The quickest and cheapest way of learning the secret of his success is to read regularly and heed that compact cyclopedia of facts and principles, PRINTERS' INK. Two dollars per year. Drop a card for sample copy to 10 Spruce Street, New York.

E. C. Walker, 28 Lafayette Place, New York.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

"EXPERIENCE IS THE BESTEACHT ER,"* they say, and no doubt "they" are right for once. Do you know of a magazine that gives the experience of one which points out the way to comfort and opulence, and warns from the path of waste and poverty? If you do you are already a reader of PRINTERS' INK, but if you do not it will pay you to send to 10 Spruce St., New York, for a sample copy. It is $2 per year.

BUSINESS MEN WHO HAVE MADE A SUCCESS OF ADVERTISING?

E. C. Walker, 28 Lafayette Place, New York City.

BRIGHT
PEOPLE

Groping after perfection in their advertising will find PRINTERS' INK loaded with a weekly grist of plain, blunt facts, business-quickening arguments and information thoroughly winnowed and sifted by a host of clever writers who don't know how to do anything else successfully. Thousands watch for every issue, rake the surface, and pocket the "nuggets."

Possibly they do it because it doesn't pay them. We would be pleased to see you get a few of the gleanings.

One year, once a week, $2.00.
Write for sample copy—we'll send it.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St.,
New York.

W. R. McColl, Owen Sound, Ont.

QUIET
WRITE.

Perhaps a few hours of perplexed seclusion, much word twisting, unlimited legal cap and still your "ad" lacks the right ring—it's NOT QUITE RIGHT.

Here's a help for you:

PRINTERS' INK, a dignified, clear Little Schoolmaster in the art of advertising, will teach you fifty-two times a year the how-much, where, how, and when of advertising, with such intense earnestness that you'll think it punishment to skip a lesson.

Some of its brightest students have learned in two years how to double their business. You could too.

Tuition, one year, $2.00. No extras.
Sample copy free for the asking.
Address,

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St.,
New York.

W. R. McColl, Owen Sound, Ont.

THE CORONER'S VERDICT

on your business will be (if you don't take care of it) "Died for want of push, energy, etc." Now, why not save your reputation and at the same time increase your business? You will say "How?" Why, easy enough, send two dollars to 10 Spruce St., New York, for a year's subscription to PRINTERS' INK, which is a magazine published weekly; is made up from ideas of the best advertisers in the country. It has display ads which are sure to catch the eye, and if you follow the advice given in the editorial columns, your business will surely thrive. Write for a same copy, which costs nothing, and we feel sure you will subscribe. A year's subscription only costs $2.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Howard C. Russ, Norwich, Conn.

"Bricks Without Straw"

Are like advertisements written without reading PRINTERS' INK. PRINTERS' INK is a weekly journal for advertisers. To an advertiser it is invaluable.

It costs per year $2.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Chas. B. Young, Jr., Santa Cruz, Cal.

COMPETITION

makes advertising necessary—it cannot profitably be dispensed with.

Perhaps you do not advertise, if not, do so. Yet if you advertise it may be that your advertisements do not sell enough goods.

Such being the case, you should read PRINTERS' INK, an interesting, instructive paper, printed weekly for advertisers. Price per year $2.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Chas. B. Young, Santa Cruz, Cal.

YOU WANT to know when to advertise, where to advertise and how to advertise.

PRINTERS' INK will tell you all about these branches of the great science of advertising. If you read it regularly every week you can become a scientific advertiser—which means you will know how to advertise in a way that will bring you dollars for all the cents you invest in newspaper advertising. That's what you want and that's what will tell you in its manifold articles on what papers to advertise in and what papers not to advertise in; how to write ads and how not to write ads; advertising schemes that pay and advertising schemes that don't pay; how money is made by advertising and how money is lost by advertising. Convinced? Then send a two dollar bill (for a year's subscription) by the next mail to PRINTERS' INK, 10 Spruce St., New York.

Arthur H. Delano, 130 Water St., N. Y.

MERCHANTS ADVERTISE.

Progressive merchants advertise successfully. Like Shakespeare, they understand their art. If you would be one of these read a bright paper devoted to advertising. That paper is PRINTERS' INK.

Two dollars sent PRINTERS' INK, 10 Spruce St., New York, will secure this journal for advertising, weekly, and for a year.

THERE'S MONEY
IN ADVERTISING
IF YOU KNOW
HOW TO GET IT.

To know how to get it, and get it quickly, you must take fifty-two weekly lessons out of the PRIMER OF ADVERTISING. This will only cost you $2.00 in cash. By a judicious use of brains you will be able to reap a crop of GOOD IDEAS, every one of them a money producer. NO BUSINESS MAN SHOULD HESITATE to subscribe for PRINTERS' INK, as it is invaluable to those who would INCREASE THEIR BUSINESS.

Send for a sample copy, or better still, send $2.00 and have it fifty-two times to your address. It's worth $200.00. 10 Spruce St., New York City, will reach them.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

PRINTERS' INK
Will teach you how to most wisely use
printers' ink.
Subscribe for it.
It's only $2.00
A year.

A. W. Warnock, 1502 Nicollet Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

THE POINT

Is this:
For $2.00
A Year
For subscription to
PRINTERS' INK
You can save
$2,000.00
A Year
By learning how best to place your advertising.
Don't
You Want To Save Money
Like That?

A. W. Warnock, 1502 Nicollet Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

WHAT'S *
YOUR BUSINESS?

Is it all you wish it? Are the yearly profits all you would have them? Are you known to as large a circle of possible buyers as you ought to be? Would not judicious advertising lead to a wider field and a larger yearly profit? PRINTERS' INK tells more about advertising and gives better advice than any other paper. It is sent one year for $2. Being a business man desirous of doing a better business will it not pay you to become a subscriber?

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Samuel Alden Granson, Boston, Mass.

THE TRUE ROAD **
TO FORTUNE,

Not the easy one—is to sell something honestly made at a fair profit to many people. Men have done it, are doing it, and will do it by judiciously advertising what they have to sell. Judicious advertising is a matter of study, not of chance. No paper tells more about advertising or gives better advertising ideas than PRINTERS' INK. No man who would be wealthy can afford to do without the little weekly. It costs only $2 a year.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Samuel Arden Granson, Boston, Mass.

WHERE **
FOR GOLD?

Would you dig in your back yard because some one finds gold in the West? Yet how do you advertise? Do you simply fill newspaper space because some one with newspaper space has won a fortune? If you do you are seeking gold hap-hazard. You may find it and—you may not. Whether seeking gold with a pick or with an ad there is a know-how and a know-where. From no source can you learn more about advertising than from PRINTERS' INK. It tells how, it tells where. It costs $2 a year.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Samuel Alden Granson, Boston, Mass.

INK—lined to be
INK—redulous? or feel
INK—apacitated?

Well, a great many business men are that way. They know their business, but when it comes to dabbling in some one's else business, obstacles arise.

Now, in the matter of advertising, few business men possess the faculty for properly building an attractive or taking advertisement. They think they do, but do they? Better intrust such matters to those who make a business of it, and PRINTERS' INK, the famous "Little Schoolmaster," will do just that thing for you. It is issued weekly and will cost you but $2 for a whole year.

Geo. P. Rowell & Co. are the publishers at 10 Spruce St., New York.

F. E. Meeker, 719 Warren St., Syracuse, N. Y.

Three and forty-four fifty-seconds cents a week is pretty small pay for a schoolmaster, isn't it? Yet Geo. P. Rowell & Co., of 10 Spruce St., New York, stand ready to furnish any number of Schoolmasters at that price. PRINTERS' INK, their "schoolmaster in the art of advertising," is a tireless worker, visiting its employer every week and leaving sufficient instruction of the newest and most practical and business-making kind to last until its next visit. Every person who engages its services looks with pleasure and gratification to its every visit, for they know that it is working steadily for their interests, that it cannot be swerved from its chosen path, and that its experience is invaluable. To do without it is as imprudent for the business man as to neglect insurance or to refuse to pay taxes. If you want to come within the provisions of the income tax subscribe for PRINTERS' INK.

Frank F. Moynahan, Danvers, Mass.

Vendor.	An advertisement introduces purchasers to you.
*
Advertisement.	The introduction should favorably impress the purchaser with the quality and price of your goods.
Vendee.

This can only be done by bringing the purchaser to you by a correct advertisement.

If you would learn how to write correct advertisements, PRINTERS' INK is an invaluable hand-book. It is published weekly. Price per year, $2.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St., New York.

Chas. B. Young, Jr., Santa Cruz, Cal.

OH!
SEEK ADVICE.

'Tisn't every one who needs advice, neither does every one who needs advice seek it, but if you need advice in regard to advertising and are seeking for it, you can get more good POINTERS, more ideas for catchy, showy, result obtaining methods of advertising, if you take a look
IN that bright, crisp, concise little weekly pamphlet, whose pages are filled with gratuitous advice, written by men who have devoted their lives to the study of the art—yes, we do not hesitate to call it an art—of
ADVERTISING.

Printers' Ink: A Journal for Advertisers.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

THE ADVERTISER who doesn't read
PRINTERS' INK
is as wise as the man who tries to do without eating bread. PRINTERS' INK is a vital staff to the advertiser. Every business man ought to read PRINTERS' INK as an aid to success. Every employee of every business house ought to read PRINTERS' INK as a business educator—an aid to promotion. Published weekly—$2 a year.

Giant value, pigmy price.

Address all orders to
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce st., New York City.

Frank Hocking Chaplin, Detroit, Mich.

---

* FAITH IN
THE VALUE OF
INK
is strong within the breast of successful advertisers. Through the medium of PRINTERS' INK they give their ideas and relate their experiences for the benefit of others.

"Expert ad constructors" also contribute practical examples of ads that sell goods.

PRINTERS' INK is a weekly magazine dealing with all phases of advertising. Subscription price $2 a year. Sample copy sent on receipt of 5 cents. Address,
10 Spruce Street, New York.

W. J. Gray, Cookshire, Que.

BEST
SAVE YOUR MONEY
Until you learn how to advertise judiciously.

It will make a vast difference to you whether you advertise before or after you know how.

Would not a few lessons in the art by experts who are past masters in the science of advertising be of some benefit to you?

Terms are modest enough.

For $2.00 (in advance) we will send the "Little Schoolmaster" to you each week for one year, who will give you lessons in advertising worth—well, we will let you tell how much.

Address PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce St.,
New York City.

W. T. Johnson, 64 Middagh St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

SOME ADVERTISERS ARE UNSELFISH.

They are willing that others should learn of their successful methods of obtaining publicity. They write their experience and publish it in a bright little weekly journal for advertisers, called PRINTERS' INK, published at 10 Spruce St., New York. Don't you think you might get an idea or two from its pages? It's $2.00 a year. Sample copy free.

P. S. There are a lot of ready-made advertisements in it also.

W. F. Brand, Liverpool, N. Y.

WHAT do you do to sell your goods?
Wouldn't
YOU like to learn something that would help you sell them? and DON'T you think it worth your while to read up a little bit on this line? and if you should KNOW that a sample copy of PRINTERS' INK would be sent to you free ABOUT this time, wouldn't you send for it? PRINTERS' INK is published for advertisers and ADVERTISING at 10 Spruce St., New York.
Write and get a sample copy.
It will help you out.

W. Alfred Wilson, Oklahoma City, O. T.

WORKED BRINGS A FORTUNE.

PRINTERS' INK contains 10,000 ideas annually. Price, $2.

A Fortune for 8 Bits.

PRINTERS' INK is a fortunate idea for advertisers. It is a good, live, up to date little visitor.

Ray Humiston, Worthington, Minn.

HUNTING
MONEY
isn't done with a pack of hounds, but by advertising until you reach the keeper of every purse in your hunting-ground. And when you reach him you must convince him—mustn't miss fire when right on your game. To find and hit requires training. You must profit by others' experience.
PRINTERS
INK
is the weekly paper devoted to this training. It is a masterly master, pithy, wise and honest. You can have its weekly services for $2 a year, and a sample copy free.
Address
PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce street, New York.

R. L. Curran, 111 W. 34th st., New York.

 ARE YOU WILLING TO LEARN HOW TO ADVERTISE SUCCESSFULLY?

Probably one-half of the successful advertisers of America are getting and giving pointers on the art through the columns of PRINTERS' INK, a journal for advertisers, published weekly. You can enjoy their company a whole year for $2. It will pay you, too. Write 10 Spruce street, New York, for sample copy.

W. F. Brand, Liverpool, N. Y.

THERE IS A PAPER **
THAT TELLS ABOUT
ADVERTISING.

Are your advertisements satisfactory? Do you want to know more about advertising? Would you like something to stimulate you to better efforts? Do you want to see what the best advertisers are doing? Do you want to make your advertisements more profitable? PRINTERS' INK will do this for you. It comes once a week, is published at 10 Spruce St., N. Y. and costs $2.00 a year.

Frank T. Babbit, Corry, Pa.

WHY DO YOU * NEED
PRINTERS' INK?

Because it contains the keynote of business success. Make a careful study of its pages; learn how to put new vim and vigor into your advertisements. Follow the up-to-date advice contained in this little magazine and yours will be the store of no dull days. It comes full of good things once a week. Costs but $2.00 a year. Sample copy for the asking. 10 Spruce St., New York.

Mrs. Frank T. Babbit, Corry, Pa.

"FORCED TO THE WALL" is a too frequent head-line in the newspapers nowadays.

In many cases the failure could have been avoided had the business been properly advertised.

PRINTERS' INK, a journal for advertisers, has aided many a business man to build up a lucrative trade. It is printed weekly, and is always filled with bright, pointed articles on successful advertising. $2 a year. Sample copy free by addressing 10 Spruce st., N. Y.

WAYS THAT PAY.

Every way that bright business men have discovered for catching the public eye and drawing new patronage is freely considered in Printers' Ink. It believes in every kind of advertising that pays, and is brimful of meaty suggestions for live merchants.

The oldest and ablest advertisers write for its columns, and practically all the leading advertisers in the country subscribe to it. Do you? Can you imagine a bigger two-dollars' worth than a year's subscription?

"I confess to have culled many bright ideas from its columns."—RALPH TILTON, Advertising Manager, Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., Chicago.

Wolstan Dixey, World Building, New York.

After December 31st, 1895, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 a year.

The North American Review

3 East 14th Street,

Eightieth Year..... NEW YORK.

Edited by LLOYD BRYCE.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW is a monthly publication, recognized throughout the world as a high-class literary magazine. Its contributors are the leading men and women in Politics, Science, Art, Theology and Literature.

Their thoughts and opinions are valuable, and appearing in THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW over their own names, makes it a publication which is kept, bound into volumes, and placed in libraries for future use.

It is not hastily perused, but carefully and conscientiously read from cover to cover.

The readers are cultured people of means and influence, and certainly their patronage is well worth striving for.

You cannot find another magazine which reaches the same class, therefore THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW is the only one which can easily put you in touch with them. Further information and particulars will be furnished on application.

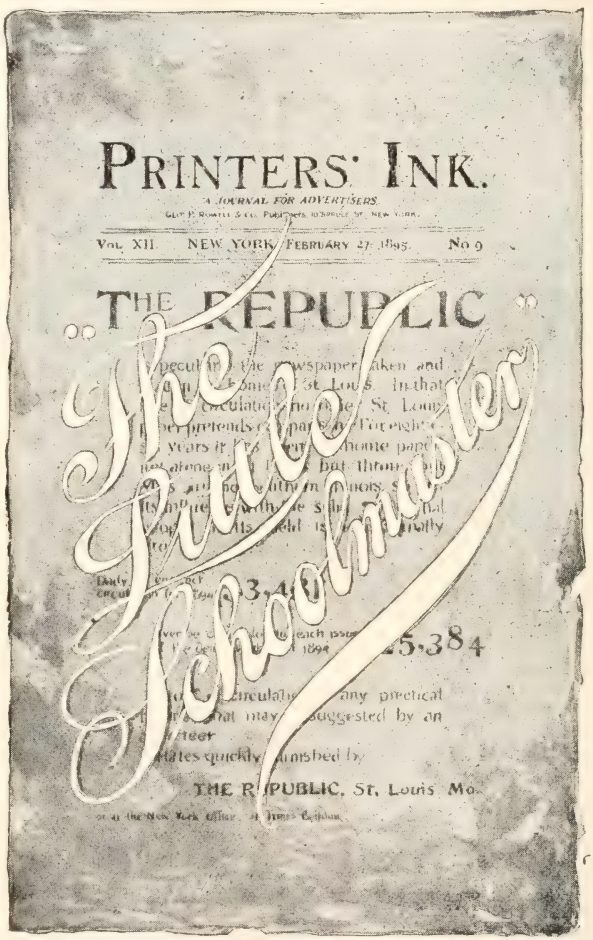
...A UNIQUE BOOK...



"The education of advertisers in the writing of attractive advertisements is the mission of PRINTERS' INK. To increase the advertising of the journal the publishers advertise it in a neat little book called 'The Little Schoolmaster.' It is as attractive as the paper itself and gives good pointers on the value of PRINTERS' INK.

The latter is a practical paper that gives precedence to facts over theories. All this 'The Little Schoolmaster" explains. It also tells what patrons think of the usefulness of PRINTERS' INK. This paper claims a circulation of 21,000 copies, and the truth is probably told."—Chicago Dispatch.

...PRINTING INKS...

35 Letters

IN ONE MAIL.

On Monday, May 27th, I received in my morning mail thirty-five (35) letters, which contained twenty-eight (28) orders and seven (7) testimonials, and not one complaint. They came from California,	New York,

Connecticut,	North Carolina,
Georgia,	Ohio,
Illinois,	Oregon,
Indiana,	Pennsylvania,
Iowa,	Texas,
Kentucky,	Virginia,
Maryland,	Washington,
Masachusetts,	Wisconsin,
Michigan,	Nova Scotia.

Is not this a grand showing, bearing in mind that I have no agents, and every order must be accompanied by cash, otherwise the goods are not shipped?

Send for my beautiful price list. Address

A Chance for Every Publisher! Gold Stocks for Advertising Space!

THE EDITOR.

GLITTERING GOLD!

Speculate in Colorado's Great Gold Fields.

DEAR BROTHER—I own a few thousand shares of full paid and non-assessable stock (par value $1 each share) in a very promising Cripple Creek gold mining company (chartered by the State), which corporation owns some splendid showing gold properties at the marvelous Cripple Creek gold camp near Pike's Peak.

If you will agree to at once set in type and insert in each issue of your paper (sending marked copies regularly) the three reading notices shown below for six months, I will send you a block of one hundred shares (par value $100), of the stock of the above company, including a prospectus fully describing the company's mines, and will send you same on request at any time after you have given the advertisement one insertion.

Bear in mind, the shares are fully paid for and there will never be any assessments, taxes, etc., to pay on them.

If you accept my offer start the advertisements at once and notify me by postal card when the same will start, not forgetting to put me on your mail list.

Fraternally, W. C. CALHOUN, Publisher.

CHESTER, NEB —Dear Sir—Received certificate of 100 shares of gold mining stock as per contract, for which we return thanks for your promptness in forwarding same.
Yours very respectfully, JOHN REDLINE, Pub. Herald.

LAPORTE, INDIANA—Dear Brother—Herewith I acknowledge the receipt of a certificate for 100 shares of gold mining stock with my best thanks. Yours fraternally,
GEO. SCHLEYER, Pub. Journal.

FLORENCE, ARIZ.—W. C. Calhoun, Esq Dear Sir—Stock certificate received to-day. Many thanks. Please excuse haste. Yours fraternally, WILL F. COOPER, Pub. Tribune.

HARVARD, Neb.—W. C. Calhoun. Dear Sir—Certificate of share received this day all O. K. Wish you success in your business. Yours, etc., JAMES SALISBURY, Clay County Journal.

W. C. Calhoun, Esq. Dear Sir—The gold mining stock sent me by you on recent date has been received. Accept thanks for the same. Yours truly,
E. E. BETZER, Pub. Blade, SEWARD, Neb.

THE BEAUTIFUL ROCKIES!

They contain the Grandest scenery and the Richest Gold Mines in the known World.

For unknown wealth in fabulously rich mines of gold and silver and sparkling precious gem-stones, not to mention the lovely scenery, our own Rocky Mountains excel any region on earth. The Illustrated Weekly, of Denver, Colorado, (founded 1890) illustrates the choicest scenery each week and tells all about the wonderful West. Also, true stories of love and adventure. This big family paper, containing eight large pages, fifty-six columns, will be sent on trial three months (thirteen weeks) for only ten two-cent stamps; club of six for a dollar bill. Handsome gold rings set with beautiful Rocky Mountain gems are given free as premiums. Address as above and mention the —— when you write.

IT'S FREE!

Do not fail to send for a free sample copy of the WEEKLY GLOBE, box 540, Denver, Colo., an illustrated home and family paper, devoted to temperance, pure Western stories, mining news, etc. Fifty cents per year. Send to-day.

THE GOLDEN WEST

invites your attention. Fabulous fortunes have been made by judicious investments in gold mining stocks. Send a stamp for full particulars about Cripple Creek gold camp (near Pike's Peak) and full particulars about our company. Address Pike's Peak Mining & Real Estate Company (Incorporated), Denver, Colo.

☞ Please set above in minion, brevier or long primer type and run as reading notices for six months. Do not put them following each other.

☞ Mention ROWELL'S AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY when you write me.

EVENING CALL

Lead is a town of five thousand inhabitants, is the home of the famous Homestake mine, the same being located within two blocks of the Lead post-office. This mine's pay roll aggregates $107,500 per month and the total output of gold last year amounted to $6,000,000. So you will observe THE CALL is published in a community that does neither have to depend on sunshine or rain in order to "raise a crop." Our people have so much money to spend every month, and if you have anything to sell we would take great pleasure in notifying this community of the fact through the medium of our advertising columns.

House and Home,

S. I. BELL CO., PUBLISHERS,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Household papers have won the distinction of being the most profitable advertising mediums for advertisers, both general and local.

The HOUSE AND HOME is a monthly household publication long established, and it goes into the homes of the best class of people.

It is carefully edited, has special articles of merit to interest women, and is gaining in circulation and influence each month.

The value of HOUSE AND HOME as an advertising medium has been proven many times, and can be verified by the many unsolicited testimonials we have received from those who have used its columns to make their goods well known and create a healthy demand.

The demand you are after can only be had by using the paper which has the favor of its readers, and they must also have the money to buy.

Try the HOUSE AND HOME and you will see that the paper does produce results.

THE WHY SHOULD I READ AND ADVERTISE IN NATIONAL RECORDER,

PUBLISHED IN

BECAUSE WASHINGTON, D. C.?

It is the leading technical journal of the Capital; it prints weekly all the official news of the Government of interest to inventors, patentees, manufacturers, pension claimants, publishers of weekly newspapers and others doing business with the Departments, and is read by many thousands in these large classes of intelligent citizens.

WHY?

BECAUSE

TO THE INVENTOR the National Recorder is a guide, philosopher and friend. It spurs his inventive faculty by bringing to his attention each week the latest improvements in every branch of practical science and in every field of discovery.

TO THE PATENTEE it is invaluable as a medium of communication with manufacturers, capitalists and those who are seeking the most approved devices in every line of industry.

TO THE MANUFACTURER its columns constitute a complete index of all the newest and best improvements in every art known to the industrial world. The National Recorder keeps him in close touch with inventors and inventions, and advises him at the earliest moment of improvements in the implements of his special line of business.

TO THE PENSION CLAIMANT the National Recorder is a vigilant monitor that keeps close watch of legislation, decisions and rulings of interest to the veteran, and promptly calls his attention to innovations that concern him.

TO THE PENSIONER it often points the way to the securing of an additional share of the Government's bounty, opened perhaps by new legislation or favorable Departmental rulings.

TO THE COUNTRY EDITOR—the overworked and underpaid—it is simply indispensable. It prints weekly the allowances of patents, classified by States, from which he may clip at will for his constituency. It supplies him with the latest pension decisions, and it contains a series of Washington news letters suited to every phase of political creed, which he is invited to reprint without credit to the National Recorder, without money and without price.

These are some of the REASONS WHY.

American School and College Journal,

ST. LOUIS, MO.

H. H. STENDEL, Editor and Publisher.

THE AMERICAN SCHOOL AND COLLEGE JOURNAL circulates among the most intel igent people to be found. They are eager to achieve success and take all possible means to keep in the van. An article of merit will be seen quicker and grasped sooner by them than any other class. Their patronage is valuable, because the fact of their having your goods is a recommendation to all their friends, and so they become to you a buyer and a salesman. To cultivate this patronage and make your goods known there is but one way of assured success, and that is by using their favorite paper, one which has influence, not a scattered, but a thorough circulation.

THE AMERICAN SCHOOL AND COLLEGE JOURNAL possesses all these advantages. A trial contract will convince you that it has the merits, and it will be put on your list as a profitable advertising medium.

The Star of Sikeston, established at Sikeston, Mo., 1883, and the Scott County Headlight, established 1894, at Morley, Mo., were consolidated November 10th, 1894, and published at Sikeston under the name of Scott County Democrat, ERNEST R. LAREY, Editor and Proprietor.

In comparison with its size, Sikeston is the wealthiest town in the State, and is surrounded by the most fertile soil in the United States. The citizens of Scott and New Madrid counties have become very wealthy by raising wheat and shipping lumber, and are now turning their attention to the Arts, Education, the artistic furnishing of their homes and the improvement of their live stock. The Democrat reaches this class of readers and they patronize its advertisers. The Democrat has a large, increasing circulation.

ADVERTISING RATES:

Electrotypes, 1 inch, 20 cents; 1 month, 50 cents; 3 months, $1.00; 6 months, $1.75; 9 months, $2.50; 1 year, $3.00. Five times as much for five inches; other space proportionately. Five per cent extra for setting ads and wood base cuts. Do not write for cheaper rates, for your letters will not be answered. Address

ERNEST R. LAREY, SIKESTON, MO.
